The Yarbrough Family Quarterly

The Yarbrough Family Quarterly (YFQ) is published four times a year by The Yarbrough National Genealogical & Historical Association, Inc. (YNGHA) at Blountsville, AL. Distribution is by the Internet, although paper copies are available for those who do not use the Internet. New issues may be viewed online and/or printed by visiting the YNGHA website.

Contributed articles are welcomed and should be sent to the Editor, The Yarbrough Family Quarterly, 277 Three Oaks Road, Blountsville, AL 35031-6068. Either paper manuscript or digital format (preferably Microsoft® Word or Adobe® PDF) is acceptable, and the submitter will be afforded an opportunity to review any editorial changes prior to publication. Photographs must be accompanied by a signed release form.

The YFQ is the lineal descendant of The Yarbrough Family Quarterly published by Mrs. Nelle Morris Jenkins. That was actually a newsletter, beginning in 1961 and continuing until her death in 1963. Charles David ("Texas Charlie") Yarborough began publishing in 1966 and continued until his death in 1985. Charles H. ("Tennessee Charlie") Yarbrough next served as editor and publisher of an interim newsletter from 1986 until 1990. Publication of the current YFQ began in 1991 with Leonard Yarbrough as editor. Succeeding editors were Karen Mazock, Kent Goble and Gayle Ord.

The President's Corner.. Dear Members and Friends,

Greetings and welcome to 2022!

I hope that the New Year has started off with a bang and good health and good fortune to all our Families.

According to the Chinese calendar, this is the year of the Tiger.

The Covid Virus in its different strains is still with us and expect that it will with us for a while longer. Since the beginning in early 2020, there have been reported 914,000 deaths in the United States.

Sad Note : Major General John “ Jack” Singlaub passed away in late January. The General was the husband of Joan Singlaub, our past President and active member. The General attended many of our conferences with Joan and was always a delight and a supporter of our organization.

We have 136 members that are current in their dues and over 1000 Facebook members. Please send in the $15.00 annual dues for 2022.

We hope to have The YNGHA Conference this fall in Petersburg, Virginia since we had to postpone from last fall due to Covid restrictions.

Please contact Leonard or myself with any goals and ideas that you would like to share with the Family.

Thanks in advance to the Officers and the Board for your efforts in “Keeping the Family”.

I wish for every Yarbrough Family member a healthy and successful New Year!

Jim Yarbrough

It's early days so far, but with a bit of luck and good timing, we hope to have our family conference in October. Although it was disappointing to have to cancel the conference last year, it has actually been a wise decision. This year will mark another decade since the YNGHA first met to commemorate the resting place of our earliest ancestor here in the New World. In spite of the uncertainties, it now seems that we will be able to host the conference this year.

We still do not know as much about Old Richard Yarborough's origins as we would like. Hopefully, our DNA Project will eventually provide additional knowledge about Old Richard and his antecedents, and just maybe, show a bit more about his relationship(s) with other extant Yarbroughs of his times.

- While it may not appear obvious, the past decade has seen considerable progress. Our membership is up to near its peak levels;
- We have an active FaceBook group, from which we continue to draw family association members;
- We have completed the digitization of 171 volumes of family records, as well digitization of all our past family journals.
- Contributions of family records are on the increase.
- While we are still learning to use virtual meeting technology, we can at least have face-to-face meetings.

While reviewing some past issues of the Quarterly, I realized that while we had focused on the Joshua Yarborough line, particularly that portion related to Joshua III's son Uriah, not much attention had been given to Uriah's brother Green Berry (of Greenbury, Greenberry, etc.) Uriah's family left Georgia for Alabama circa 1854, and Green Berry and his family decamped to Duval County, Florida. So, this issue is focused on Green Berry's family.

Sadly we lost two of our family – Madison Yarbrough and Jack Singlaub – and they will be missed. Nevertheless, we have much for which to be thankful.

– Leonard

A Matter of Perspective¹

Leonard Yarbrough

Our records trace our family back to 854 CE, and while reviewing some of the records, I thought of taking a look at the population figures (estimates, actually). The table below resulted from my search:

Year	Europe	North American
854	27,700	1,100
1260	60,000	1,700
1492	68,500	2,100
1642	90,400	1,000
1705	98,200	1,230
1776	147,000	5,400
1812	149,000	7,330
1865	208,000	26,000
1900	300,400	82,000
2011	820,000	316,400

Of course, it is doubtful that Thomas Malthus would be surprised, as the chart from which this table was constructed predicted just the kind of exponential growth he propounded. There are a few observations of interest. First, prior to and immediately following the arrival of William the Conqueror in Great Britain, the western world consisted of little more than various tribes who spent most of their time fighting each other.

Second, by the time of the Tea Party, the likelihood of the American Revolution being successful was slim to none. Had England not been otherwise chasing after Spain and France, we would still be subjects of the British Monarch.

Finally, it's not too many generations back before the gene pool for our ancestors drops to finite, manageable size. Considering the mortality rates for the years prior to 1900, collectively we had to descend from some very hardy people (who probably were also very lucky).

Joshua Yarborough I

While reviewing several of the back issues, it seemed that not much had been published about the lineage of Green Berry Yarborough, a son of Joshua's grandson Joshua III. Cy Yarborough, in his book Southern Journeys, Descendants of Joshua Yarborough, Descendants of Joshua Yarborough, provides a thorough treatment of the Joshua line, and it is from that source that this and the following history of Green Berry Yarborough are taken.

Notes for CHARLES YARBOROUGH:

Some researchers say that there was a son Charles. Probably, they have mixed up the two Henry's and it was Henry Sr. who had a son Charles. But I have no proof that Henry Jr. didn't have a son named Charles. If he did, this Charles must have died very young as he isn't mentioned in any of the records of Henry Jr.

Green Berry Yarborough

Most of our families immigrated westward through the Carolinas, thence across Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and further. Green Berry, however, decamped for Florida, settling in Duval County (Jacksonville and environs). Many of his descendants remain in this general area, whereas the remainder of his family eventually settled in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Born ca. 1800 in Mecklenburg Co., North Carolina, his name has several spelling variations. Greenberry spelled as one word is the most popular spelling of his name, however, I have a copy of a letter that was written by Green Berry in 1858 whereby he signed the letter "G. B." Yarborough. If he signed the letter in that manner using two distinct initials for his name, it would appear to me that his actual name is Green Berry, two words, instead of Greenberry or Greenbury which I have also seen which in either case is one word. Green Berry is the second child of Joshua Yarborough III. He moved as a boy with his parents and siblings to Chester Co., South Carolina where he grew to adulthood. Green Berry farmed in Chester Co. and in the early 1820's married Mary "Polly" McCalla. "Polly" was born ca. 1797, the daughter of James and Mary McCalla. The first recorded document of Green Berry obtaining land in Chester Co. on 12/17/1827, whereby Green Berry purchased 19 acres from Pressly T. Clack on Mill Creek, a branch of Turkey Creek for the sum of $30. The transaction was witnessed by his father Joshua Yarborough. On 06/04/1828 Green Berry and his wife Polly are mentioned in the will of her father James McCaulley (McCalla), whereby they receive one dollar as they had already received their part of her father's estate. On 09/05/1828, Green Berry sells the 19 acres he had purchased the previous year (it had since been surveyed and found to be 20 acres) to Col. Greenberry Colvin for the sum of $50, making a nice profit. On 08/13/1831 Green Berry purchases 67 acres of land in Chester Co. from William L. Wallace, executor of the estate of Thomas Wallace. The land laid on the headwaters of McCarty's branch. His brother Uriah was a witness and also proved the deed. For the next fourteen years Green Berry does not appear to be involved in any land transactions other than as a witness. He does appear in both the 1830 and 1840 U. S. census for Chester Co., S. C. On 11/08/1845 Green Berry sells to Sample Alexander 67 acres on headwaters of McCarty's Branch in Chester Co. for the sum of $225. The deed was recorded in Chester Co. court in January of 1848. That was the last record of Green Berry Yarborough being in Chester Co., South Carolina.

The next document in which I have been able to find Green Berry is the 1850 U. S. census for Jackson Co., Florida. I do not know the exact date Green Berry and his family arrived in Jackson Co., but it appears that they arrived there by 1847 or 1848 as one of his daughters married there around that time. I cannot speculate as to why Green Berry chose to move to Jackson Co.,

Florida. As far as I know he had no relatives there. Most of his family had moved to Campbell Co., Georgia except for his brother Uriah who remained in Chester Co., S. C. along with him but died less than a year after Green Berry sold his land in Chester Co. Nevertheless, within a year of the 1850 census we find Green Berry buying land in Jackson Co., Florida. On 02/09/ 1851 he buys 39.94 acres. On 12/18/1852 he buys an additional 39.90 acres. On 07/26/1853 he buys another 40.01 acres and on 01/17/1854 an additional 39.78 acres. Finally on 08/02/1854 he buys 159 acres to bring the total to nearly 280 acres.

Green Berry continued to farm his land through the 1850's and all his daughters were married by the end of that decade. The decade of the 1860's started off bad for Green Berry as his wife "Polly" is listed in the 1860 Florida Mortality Schedule as having died in January of 1860. I do not know where she was buried. Things continued to go downhill for him as all his sons left home to join the Confederate forces during the Civil War. By the time the Civil War was over Green Berry was an old man. He was listed in the 1860 and 1870 U.S. census for Jackson Co., Florida and he continued to farm.

Unfortunately, I can no longer find my source but my recollection is that Green Berry was listed in the 1880 U. S. census for Jackson Co., Florida living with a relative that I now cannot identify. My recollection is that the census indicated that he was sick and disabled. For that reason, I believe Green Berry probably died ca. 1880 as he would have been approximately 80 years of age at that time. I have no information on the exact date of his death or where he is buried. There have been some extensive surveys on the cemeteries of Jackson Co., Florida and I have found none that has a grave marker for either Green Berry or his wife. My guess is that they were buried in an unmarked grave somewhere near where they lived. Green Berry and his wife "Polly" had eight children.

a. ALMIRA OR ELMIRA YARBOROUGH (BAXTER)- Born 07/05/1824 in Chester Co., South Carolina, she was raised in Chester Co., and moved with her family as a young woman to Jackson Co., Florida. There she met and married Solomon Baxter on 12/18/1850 in Jackson Co., Florida. Solomon was born 11/03/1822 in Jackson Co., Florida, the son of James Oliver and Sarah Futch Baxter. There is some dispute concerning Solomon's date of birth. The date I have listed above was from researchers of the Baxter family, however, his grave marker has his date of birth as 11/03/1827. I do not know which is correct. This family can be found in the 1860 U. S. census for Jackson Co., Florida. Solomon was a slave owner and is listed as having one slave in 1860. I have been unable to find any records that connect Solomon to military service in the Civil War. Sometime between the 1860 and 1870 U.S. census this family moved across the state line into Henry Co., Alabama as that is where the family is found in 1870. Jackson Co., Florida is located in the Florida panhandle and is bordered on the north by what is now Houston Co., Alabama, but was at that time Henry Co. Solomon was a farmer and he continued to farm most, if not all of his life as far as I know. Once again the family was found in the 1880 U. S. census in Henry Co., Alabama. Solomon died on 02/16/1892. I don't know if they were living in Henry Co., Alabama or Jackson Co., Florida at the time of his death. Almira can be found in the J 900 U. S. census living with her oldest living son at that time in Robertson Co., Texas. She did return to Florida and died in Jackson Co., Florida on 12/06/1906 at the age of 82. She and Solomon were buried in Collins Chapel Cemetery just west of Malone, Jackson Co., Florida. Almira and Solomon had ten children.

b. UNKNOWN DAUGHTER YARBOROUGH - It can be determined through the 1830 and 1840 U. S. census records of Chester Co., South Carolina that Green Berry and "Polly" had five daughters, however when the 1850 census of Jackson Co., Florida was taken, which was the first census that listed the names of the children only three daughters were listed. A fourth was later discovered but I have never been able to determine who their fifth daughter was. This daughter was born ca. 1820's in Chester Co., South Carolina, but I do not know if she married in Chester Co. before they moved to Jackson Co., Florida or married very soon after arriving there and I have been unable to find any records.

ELEANOR YARBOROUGH (HORNE) Born ca. 1828 in Chester Co., South Carolina, she grew up in Chester Co. and moved in her late teens with her parents and siblings to Jackson Co., Florida. There she married Elisha B. Home on 08/15/1859 in Jackson Co. Through many years of research I have been unable to find any other information on this family.

RHODA YARBOROUGH (LOCKHART). Born 04/17/1831 in Chester Co., South Carolina, she grew up in Chester Co., and moved in her mid-teens with her parents and Siblings to Jackson Co., Florida. There she met and married Perry Jackson Lockhart ca. 1848. Perry was born ca. 1825 in Alabama. This family can be found in the 1850 Jackson Co., Florida census living next to Green Berry Yarborough. According to census records Perry's occupation was that of a farmer and of a brick mason. When the civil war broke out Perry enlisted in Co. B of the 15th Florida Cavalry, C.S.A. At least two of his Yarborough brother-in-laws served in the same unit. Shortly after the end of the civil war this family left Jackson Co., Florida and moved to Jefferson Co., Alabama. I do not know the reason for the move nor do I know if they were aware of their Yarborough kin being in that area. The family stayed in Jefferson County approximately two or three years and moved again to neighboring Walker Co., Alabama just to the northwest of Jefferson Co. A little over thirty years later more Yarborough kin would move from neighboring Blount Co., Alabama into Walker Co., in the same vicinity that the Lockhart's lived. Whether or not they were aware of their kinship at that time is unknown to me, but I can honestly say that when I attended a family reunion of the Yarborough's in Walker Co., Alabama in 2000 none were aware of the relationship. Rhoda and Perry remained in the Walker Co., Alabama area the rest of their lives near the Dora community. Perry died 10/21/1899 and Rhoda died on 05/04/1900 in Dora, Walker Co., Alabama. She is buried in the Davis Cemetery in Dora. Members of this family over the generations have used modified spellings and pronunciations of the name, primarily Lockart and Lockard, but rather than struggling with making sure I have used each modification of the original name correctly, which I probably wouldn't be able to do I will just stick with the original name LOCKHART throughout. Rhoda and Perry had eleven known children.

GREEN BERRY YARBOROUGH JR - Born 08/05/1832 in Chester Co., South Carolina, he was the first son born as a result of the union between Green Berry Sr. and Mary "Polly" McCalla after four daughters. He moved with his parents and siblings to Jackson Co., Florida as a teenager in the mid-to late 1840's. There he finished maturing into a young man and farmed on the family farm in Jackson Co. Green Berry Jr. is first found buying land in Jackson Co., Florida on 06/16/1856 when he purchases 159 acres. This land was public land for sale by the federal government. It does not disclose the purchase price but did state that payment was made in full. Green Berry is next found in Jackson Co., Florida records when he marries Nancy Oswald on 12/09/1860 in Jackson Co., Florida. Nancy was born 01/01/1841 in Florida. Green Berry again purchases land in Jackson Co., Florida on 12/05/1861 when he purchases 40 and six one hundredths of an acre. What was strange about this is that this was also public land for sale by the Federal (U. S.) government, but Florida had already succeeded from the Union. The document was signed Abraham Lincoln by W. O. Stoddard. Green Berry did not enter the fray between the Union and Confederacy at the outbreak of war but enlisted in Co. B. of the 15th Florida Cavalry C.S.A. on 08/10/1862, along with at least one of his younger brothers and a brother-in-law.

Green Berry Jr. was captured at Claiborne, Ala. on 04/12/1865 and discharged at Mobile on 04/20/1865. At that time he returned home to begin farming again.

Green Berry Jr. remained in Jackson Co., Florida for the remainder of his life and as far as I know was a life long farmer. He died on 09/01/1900 in Jackson Co., Florida. In 1903 his widow Nancy applied for a Confederate Widow's Pension. The pension was approved on 08/12/1903. Nancy died 01/25/1912 in Jackson Co., Florida. Green Berry Jr. and Nancy are buried in Collins Chapel Cemetery in Malone, Jackson Co., Florida. Green Berry Jr. & Nancy had ten children.

They can be found in the 1860 and 1880 U.S. census for Jackson Co., Florida. Aaron was somewhat of a rare commodity for anyone in the Yarborough family or associated with the Yarborough's. He was a slave owner. According to the 1860 census he owned one slave. Sometime in the 1880's or 1890's the family moved to Texas. Mary Adeline and Aaron can be found in the 1900 U. S. census for Hill Co., Texas. It appears that all the children of Mary Adeline and Aaron also made the trip to Texas. I do not know when or where Mary Adeline or Aaron died or where they are buried. Mary Adeline and Aaron had ten children.

Yarbrough, Madison Simeon, Jr. Long-time Durham resident, Madison Simeon Yarbrough, Jr., died on Wednesday, January 5, 2022, at age ninety-five. With a gentle demeanor and quick wit, he was an exemplary husband, father, neighbor, businessman, and Christian.

Madison was a veteran of World War II, having enlisted in the United State Navy as soon as he graduated from high school. Madison is probably most remembered as the owner of the Y & J Furniture Co., Inc., a Durham business founded by his father in the late 1940's. Under his watchful eye and leadership, the business thrived and grew until his retirement at age seventy-two. His other interests included fishing, hunting, and gardening. He was an active member of the United Methodist Church, serving numerous times as Trustee Chairman and Chairman of the Administrative Board.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth Evelyn Shipp Yarbrough, his children Madison Simeon Yarbrough III (spouse Cissy) and John Raynor Shipp Yarbrough, granddaughter Virginia Whitnee Yarbrough Steele (spouse Chris), grandson-in-law Kevin Paul Kryscio (spouse Renee), six great grandchildren, and scores of nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was predeceased by his parents, Madison Simeon Yarbrough, Sr., and Myrtle Raynor Leavister Yarbrough, his brother, William Kenneth Yarbrough, and his granddaughter Calista Victoria Yarbrough Kryscio.

With Clements Funeral Service of Durham handling arrangements, a private burial service took place at Maplewood Cemetery on Monday, January 10, 2022.

Due to the pandemic, a public memorial service is postponed at this time. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Durham Rescue Mission, P.O. Box 11858, Durham, NC 27703 <https://durhamrescuemission.org/donate/ways-to-donate/> .
