² The number in parentheses denotes the year in which the Director's term expires.

The President's Corner ...

Dear Members and Friends:

Our association is off to a great start for 2011! Our Directors are very busy with the many activities we're continuing from last year, as well as new ones. We are so pleased to welcome JoAnn Augspuriger, Elaine Y. Wolf, Mary Yarbrough and Bill Yarbrough to our Board of Directors.

We have three areas we're focusing our attention on as we build our association to a greater outreach of services to our current members as well as inform more Yarbroughs about their unique family heritage and invite them to join us.

I am so grateful to our founders for their wisdom, devotion and commitment to form our Yarbrough National Genealogical and Historical Association. I discovered YNGHA when I was searching to find an ancestor who served in the Revolutionary War, so I could join the "Daughters of the American Revolution". I was so excited when members of YNGHA shared with me their large amount of research and documentation available! They helped me find my line, Edmund Y. and wife Sophia Gostwick. Sophia's father, Joseph W. served in the Revolutionary War. They said his prayer book was in the National Archives which I subsequently visited and made a copy of it from the micro-film! The DAR chapter I planned to join invited me to join them on a field trip to tour the historic Old Blandford Cemetery in Petersburg, VA. We were told by the guide there that the oldest grave in the cemetery was a Richard Yarborough buried there in 1702! I knew this as the YNGHA members had shared the whole story with me! Naturally, I joined YNGHA before the DAR and now call them all "my cousins"!

I am inviting you to join with me in the weeks ahead by sharing with your Y. family members your story when you discovered your heritage in YNGHA. If we fail to inform our children and grandchildren, our future generations may never have this rich knowledge of our ancestors. Let's pledge to inform them on how important it is to carry on the "travel back in time" information about their family history. I have made a list of my Y. cousins and am writing them a personal note with an application I printed from our website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>.

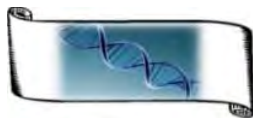

Is there any reason why each of you cannot join me by" inviting a couple of your family members to join YNGHA" and share our family history with them? It would please me to hear from you about your family story and who you are asking to join YNGHA to keep our Y. Legacy strong with YNGHA .

Over the years, the Association has built up an impressive collection of records — some twenty-two boxes. These remain in storage, except for the annual conference, where they are available in our research room. Our late President, Cathy Walker, had a goal of having these records scanned so as to be accessible through the Internet, but it will take time, resources and willing volunteers to realize this goal. I've asked Jim, Bill and Leonard Yarbrough to spearhead this activity, and by the time you read these comments, I believe they may be well on the way to developing a workable plan.

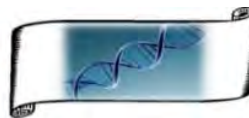

I do hope that you will plan to join us in Nashville, TN, this fall for our annual conference hosted by Jim and Hal Yarbrough. They will have this information posted soon on our website www.yarbroughfamily.org .

Thank you in advance for supporting me as your President during the months ahead and let's make this a fantastic year for our association!

Fondly, Joan Singlaub

NOTICE!

The YNGHA has an urgent need for someone to temporarily assume the duties of the Project Coordinator for the Yarbrough DNA Project. While an in-depth knowledge of the DNA testing process is not essential, computer/internet skills are necessary. Please indicate a willingness to take on this important task by notifying the YNGHA at DNA@yarbroughfamily.org.

Jottings... Well, the new year has arrived, and given that we are suffering from extreme "global warming", the old year went out with a white Christmas, followed by a white second week in the new year. Things were somewhat complicated by several long-lasting power outages. So much for the weather!

Even so, it was a right nice change of pace. Of course, the global warming notion has pretty much been debunked, even though there are some politically correct diehards remaining.

We are once again indebted to Peter Yerburgh for information about our English forebears. Peter sent a photo of his residence in Salisbury, and I had an earlier one taken in winter; both are included so as to provide a sense of his environs. It's hard to believe that it's been over a year since I last saw Peter. Time does pass quickly when you're having fun..

The web pages have been revamped; hopefully, they are even easier to view and navigate. A number of new features were added, and others are being tested. Not all of the latter are likely to be added. Clark Hickman has created a Facebook³ page for the YNGHA – it's necessary to register if you wish to post a comment, but the postings can be viewed without registering. As with the now inactive Word Press Blog, there hasn't been much activity on the page so far.

In closing, let's all welcome our new President, Joan Singlaub. She's been a board member for several years and brings considerable energy to the office. There's a lot to be done, and getting our records digitized is near the top of the list.

— Leonard

The Ozarks Steam Engine Association

In early 1962, several people organized to show their restored steam equipment; that summer they were invited to Billings, Missouri, for their first show. The show date was September 21, 22, 23, and 24, 1962. The first president was Leonard Yarbrough of Springfield and Hal Carlock was the first Secretary. The first show was a big success and the group made plans for a second show. During the fall of 1962 and early 1963 the group was able to purchase 17 acres 2 miles east of Republic, Missouri on the south side of highway US 60. This was to be the permanent home of the Ozarks Steam Engine Association Inc. The second year officers were Leonard Yarbrough, President and Clovis Burrell, Secretary. Their second show was on August 30th, 31st and September 1st and 2nd 1963 and has grown each year since. They have added to the park twice, bringing it to a total of 34 acres. Today, there is a building that houses a large stationary steam boiler and several stationary engines. There is a "Steam Motel" for storage of the traction engines and a covered sawmill that is used every year. Most recently has been the addition of flush bathrooms and showers. The park that comes alive 10 days after Labor Day for a four day reunion. The steam club meets every other month on the second Saturday night at local establishments.

YARBOROUGH CHRONOLOGICAL DATA

1559 - 1660

collated by Peter Yarburgh (U.K.)

In this last part of the Chronology I have included only the heads or heirs of the Yarboroughs in the counties of Lincolnshire, Yorkshire and Nottinghamshire. There are a great many other Yarborough names on the IGI which I have not included.

In former centuries, most Yarboroughs lived in Lincolnshire but, after 1550, branches of the family moved to the neighbouring counties of Nottinghamshire and Yorkshire. I have indicated the county underneath the underlined date.

I have given a little extra attention to the Alvingham and Saltfleetby Yarbroughs as I believe that Richard Y of Virginia came from this branch.

1559 Queen Elizabeth I reigned 1559 - 1603

1559

Lincs. 1) The Will of Thomas Yarbrough of Alvingham was written in the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Witnessed by Richard Horsard.
Thomas Yarbrough does not die until 1565.
(LCC Will. 1565/97. Y.H. p.615)

2) Thomas Yarbrough of Alvingham buys 26 selions of land from Ursula Hall. Thomas Horsarde is a witness. (Rylands Charter 25. Y.H.p.539)

Simplified pedigree of the Alvingham Ys

							(Probably went to Virginia)

* NOTE. It is not certain whether the Thomas Y, who heads this pedigree, was a brother or a cousin of the Cockerington Ys (later spelt Yerburgh). See 1594.

1560

Lincs. 1) Thomas Clifford claims ownership of Kelstern manor from the Yarburghs. The case continued for several years. In 1565 the Yarburghs relinquished their claim to the manor. (De Banco Roll 1187. Easter, 2 Elizabeth. Y.H. p.403)

1560

Lincs. 2) Thomas Yarbrough of Alvingham purchases land from Dorothy Croftes of Cockerington. (Rylands Alvingham Charter No.2. Y.H. p.539) Lincs. 1) London. Sir Ralph Chamberleyn of Suffolk sues Charles Yarburgh for a debt of 500 marks. Case adjourned.

1561

(De Banco Roll 1193. Easter, 3 Elizabeth, m.889, Y.H. 405)

2) Thomas Clyfforde brings a case against Charles Yarburgh and George Littlebury for taking 120 sheep from Kelstern.

(De Banco Roll same as above. m.824)

3) Lincoln. Charles Yarburgh, esq. sues William Elvys, of Garnethorp, yeoman, for taking three of Charles's heifers valued at 40 shillings.

(De Banco Roll same as above, m.651)

4) Lincoln. Charles Yarburgh, esq.. sues John Redheade, of Gatton-juxta-Louth, for a debt of £5 6s 8d.

(De Banco Roll 1196. Michaelmas 3 Elizabeth, m.286)

5) Lincoln. Brian Yarburgh, gent. and Dorothy, his wife, in a covenant over 4 acre of pasture 'with appurtenances' in South Somercotes made with Thomas Bery.

(De Banco Roll same as above. m.338)

6) London. Sir Ralph Chamberleyn of Suffork versus Charles Yarburgh of Gedding, Suffolk. Case (see 1) continues.

(De Banco Roll same as above. m.338)

7) Lincoln. Brian Yarburgh, gent. and Dorothy his wife, in a covenant over 24 acres of land, 26 acres of meadow and 20 acres of pasture 'with appurtenances' in South Somercote. (De Banco Roll same as above. m.249)

8) London. Charles Yarburgh 'late of Kelstern' agrees to pay Thomas Clyfforde £200 for 200 acres of land in Kelstern. See 1560 (1) &1562 (2).

The case continued in 1564 DBR 1226 Michaelmas m. 1887.

(De Banco Roll 1198. Michaelmas 3-4 Elizabeth. m.1250)

1561

Lincs. William Yarburgh, son of Charles and Elizabeth (née Littlebury) was born near this date. He died in 1618, aged about 57.

Simplified pedigree of the Yaboroughs of Yarburgh and Kelstern

(Dates indicate 1st entry for that name in this data base.)

1556-1569

Lincs. The family of Brian Yarburgh, gent.(4th son of Charles Y esq.. of Kelstern) was born at Withern. One of their sons, named Richard, and was baptised in 1581.

c.1560

Case brought before the Lord Chancellor, Sir Nicholas Bacon, concerning the inheritance of Margaret (née Mitchell), the wife of Christopher Yarburgh (♥ in the pedigree). The dispute was over lands in three villages 20 miles south of Yarburgh village. The case shows that Margaret had died and that there was a son, Thomas.

From the Will of Elizabeth Yarburgh (Christopher's mother) we know that there were two more children: Elizabeth and Anne.

(Chancery Proceedings. Series II. 210/26 & 20/42 & 140/2., Y.H. 579-561)

Lincs. Wylliam Yarbrough of Alvingham married Ellin Allot.
(Alvingham Parish Register 6th June)

1564

Lincs. John, heir of William and Ellen Yarbrough of Alvingham, born near this date.

1) Lincoln. Charles Yarburgh of Kelstern. esq.. is sued for £220 debt owed to Thomas Kyrke of Threddlethorpe.

(De Banco Roll 1218. Easter _ Elizabeth [1564] m. 570

Case continued twice in the Michaelmas term Roll 1224 m.848.

2) London. Charles Yarburgh of Kelstern sues Nicholas Gerlynton of Lincoln for £100.

(De Banco Roll 1219. Easter 6 Elizabeth [1564] m.1491)

All these cases must have been making Charles Y unwell. He owed his doctor 40 marks. He owed Thomas Wentworth £1000 and he sold him the manor of Kelstern. Other lands were sold or leased to pay creditors like Thomas Kyrke. Even so he had enough money (£800) to buy the manor of East Wyckam from John Littlebury, who must have been a relation of Charles's wife - Elizabeth (née Littlebury).

Lincs. Thomas Yarbrough of Alvingham died in 1565. His heir was William Yarborowe. Thomas's crops, animals and goods were valued at £28 15s, 4d. (£7000 today). His lands and houses was not included. (Lincoln Record Archives. Inv. 44/78)

1574

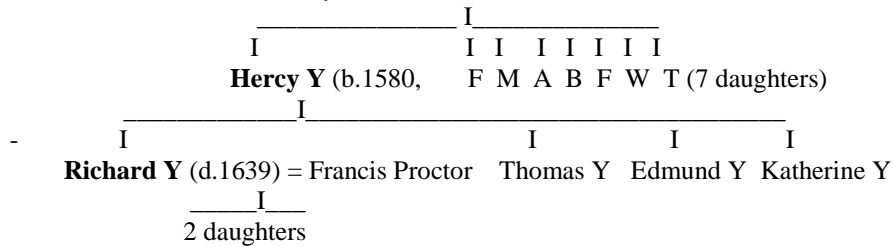

Lincs. Lincoln. Charles Yarburgh, esq.. (formerly of Kelstern). recognizes that he owes Henry Jenkinson £1000. Henry was husband of Charles's 1st cousin, Faith Yarburgh..

1576

Lincs. Ann, daughter of William Yarburgh of Alvingham was baptized.. As an adult, she married John Y, gent. of Withern (the grandson of Charles Y. esq. of Kelstern).

Notts. Near this date Charles Yarburgh, gent, heir of Edmund Y, married Barbara Whalley in Nottinghamshire. This family pedigree was:

Charles Y (d.1616) = Barbara Whalley

Notts. Hercy Yarburgh born. He was the son of Charles Yarburgh, gent. and Barbara (née Whalley). They lived at Willoughby near Newark in Nottinghamshire.

Lincs. Brian Yarburgh, gent. of Withern. died..

Lincs. William Yerburch, gent. married (H)ellen Clifford. . The marriage resolved the dispute about the lordship of the manor of Kelstern. Both families had claimed, by different marriage lineages, the right to the lordship, going back to Sir John Ewerby who was the original lord. (St Peter Eastgate, Lincoln Register 11 August)

Edmund Yarburgh (3rd son of Charles Y of Kelstern) died at Lincoln. A memorial brass to him and his wife was placed in the Cathedral. Charles Y., his eldest son, became the head of the Nottinghamshire Ys. Edmund's second son, Francis, headed the family who was to become the Yorkshire Ys.

Lincs. Henry Yarburgh, son of William and Ellen Yarburgh, gentry of Yarburgh village, was born near this date. He was to marry Frances Cheyney in 1620. (South Cockerington Baptismal Register 15 August)

1592

Lincs. Ann, daughter of William Y of Alvingham, married John Y, gent. John was son of Brian Y, and grandson of Charles Y, esq.. of Kelstern and Yarburgh. This marriage linked the Alvingham branch to the Y gentry branch of Yarburgh. She was aunt to the Richard Y who sailed to Virginia.

1594

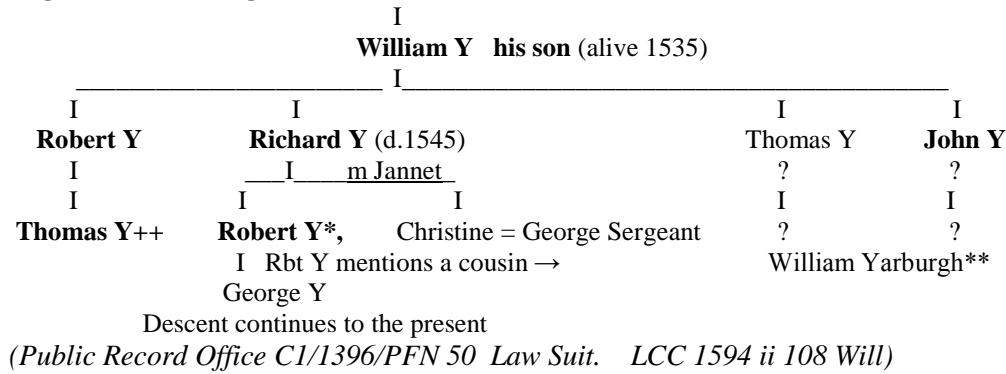

Lincs Robert Yarburgh, yeoman, (Yerburch ancestor) died. His heir was George Y. (North Cockerington Register 13th December)

This man's descendants continued in unbroken male succession down to the present Lord Alvingham, who now heads this branch. This family claim a pedigree back to Germund in the 11th century.

Outline Pedigree of the Cockerington Ys from the 15th and 16th centuries:

The parts in bold font are obtained from a Law Suit of 1553-5.

Roger Y of Cockerington

* Robert Y's Will mentions a 'cousin' William Yarburgh. In another Will of 1591 (that of Robert's cousin, Thomas Y++ of Cockerington) William Yarburghe is made the supervisor of the will, again he is called 'cousin'.
 This cousin was probably Wm. Y of Alvingham Y who died in 1597.

1595

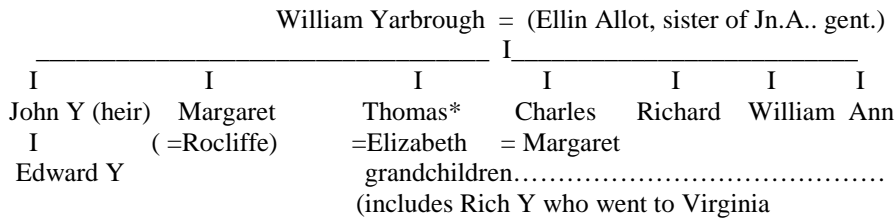

Lincs. Francis Yarburgh of Northorpe Manor died (the son of Edmund Y. See 1590)
 He had been married twice. In his time, he was a top lawyer.

Lincs. William Yarbrough, yeoman, of Alvingham died. This William Yarbrough was the son of Thomas Y of Alvingham. See the pedigree under 1561.

1591 Pedigree.

This pedigree can be deduced from William Yarbrough's Will.
 (The names in brackets from other sources.)

His Inventory was worth £178 [Worth £370.000 today]

*Thomas. His son, was left lands at Saltfleetby. He moved there shortly afterwards.
 (LCC Wills 1598 ii 91).

1603 James I reigned 1603 - 1625

Lincs. Richard Yarborowe married Elizabeth Rownsdale at Great Steeping. It is likely that this Richard was the youngest son of William Y of Alvingham, yeoman.

1609

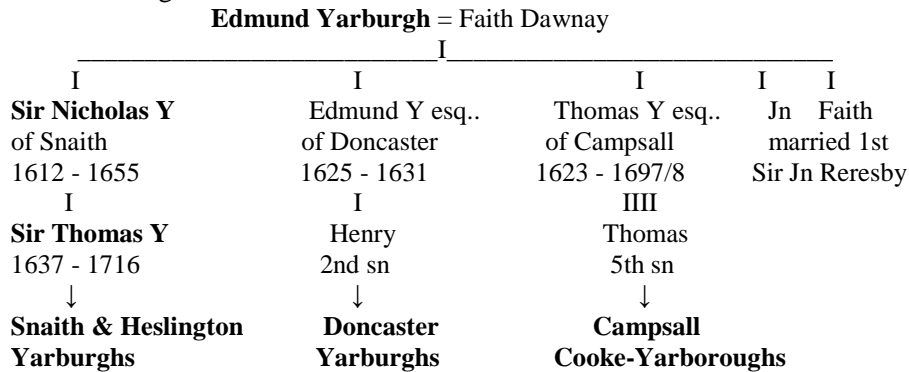

Lincs. George Yarburgh of Covenham, yeoman, (Yerburgh ancestor) died. He was the son of Robert Y of Cockerington. (See pedigree 1594.) He married twice. His first wife bore him four daughters. After his first wife's death, he married Anne Gentle. By her, he had two sons. His Inventory was worth £346 = £53,000 today.

The Yerburgh male line continued through his second son Robert Y. (b. 1602/3 and d. 1678). This man was on Parliament's side in the Civil War. (See 1649)
 (North Cockerington Register 13th December)

1611

Yorks. Edmund Yarburgh, esq., married Sarah Wormley. Edmund was the great grandson of Charles Y of Kelstern and Yarburgh.

Outline Pedigree:

1612

Yorks. Nicholas Yarburgh (son and heir of Edmund and Sarah Y.) was baptized at Snaith. In 1635 he married Faith Dawney. He was knighted about 1640.

Notts. Hercy Yarburgh, gent. of Willoughby manor, married Elizabeth Woodnett.

Notts. Richard Yarburgh, heir of Hercy Y, was born. His date of birth was so nearly the same as the year that the Virginian Y pioneer that many assumed that Hercy's son was the colonizer, However, it this is impossible as this Richard died in 1639.

1614

Lincs. Charles Yarburgh, esq., of Yarburgh village died. His son, William Yarburgh, succeeded him as head of the family.

Lincs. Saltfleetby. Richard Y, grandson of William Y of Alvingham, was probably born around this date. He was, in my estimation, the future Virginian pioneer.
(For full discussion see YFQ Vol. 6, No.3, pp 5-9)

Lincs. Ellen, wife of William Yarburgh, gent. died. (Yarburgh Register 3rd October)

1618

Lincs. William Yarburgh, gent. of Yarburgh died. His son, Henry, succeeded as head of the branch.
(Yarburgh Register 17th April)

Lincs. Henry Yarburgh, gent., son of the late William and Ellen Y, married Frances Cheyney at Boston. They were to have eight sons and a daughter.

1621

Lincs. William Yarburgh, heir of Henry and Frances Y., of Yarburgh village was born about this date. This line was the 'senior' but poorer of the Yarborough gentry.

1625 - 1633

Lincs. Henry and Frances Y had five other children but only Francis (b.1628), and Robert seem to have stayed at Yarburgh. There are no more Yarburgh names at Yarburgh after 1673.

1625 Charles I reigned 1625 - 1649 (beheaded)

1625

Notts. Hercy Y, esq.. died, His son Hercy was still a boy. His mother married again in 1636. The Nottinghamshire. Y wills are in the Record Office at Nottingham.

1631

Lincs. Edmund Yarburgh, esq., (son of Francis Yof Northorpe Hall) died. He left five children. His heir was Nicholas (later Sir Nicholas) Yarburgh, aged 19 in 1631.

1634

Yorks. Chancery case shows that Sir Nicholas Yarburgh's widowed mother owned the manor of Warmswork. This was presumably near Balne. It is possibly the place now called Wormersley. Chancery Proceedings Charles I. B.118/35, Y.H. p.586)

1635

Yorks. Nicholas (later Sir Nicholas) Yarborough married Faith Dawney in York.
(I.G.I. entry 26th May 1635)
For pedigree see 1611.

Notts. Richard Yarburgh, heir of Hercy and Elizabeth Yarburgh of Nottinghamshire, married Francis Procter in London.

1636

Notts. Hercy Yarburgh's widow married Rowland Hacker.

Lincs. Thomas Yarburgh of Saltfleetby died. He was a brother of the Virginian Y.

His Will show this pedigree: Names in brackets are from other sources.

(William Y of Alvingham d. 1597)

I
I	I
Thomas =Susan*	Matthias Y my brother
I
Susan Y

Witnessed by Richard Yarburgh (almost certainly the man who went to Virginia)
and by Thomas Danse (Thomas's manservant)

1637

Yorks. Thomas Yerburch (later Sir Thomas), eldest son of Nicholas Y of Snaith, was baptized at Snaith 29th August.(I.G.I. entry)

1639

Notts. Richard Yarburgh, son of the late Hercy Yarburgh and lord of the manor of Willoughby, Nottinghamshire, dies aged 26. He leaves a widow and two daughters. His death marks the end of that male line.

NOTE. Many felt that this Richard Y was the same man as the Richard Yarbrough, the Virginian settler, but this is proved to be impossible as the Virginian Richard Yarbrough died six decades later.

Lincs Richard Prake in a case against Henry Yarborough (See pedigree under 1561) admits "that Yarborough and his ancestors for long process of time did hold of the manor a farm worth £40 per annum". The case also shows that, in 1640, Sir Henry Radley was the lord of the manor of Yarburgh. However the Yorkshire Yarboroughs had bought the lordship of Yarburgh manor (Lincs.) before 1670.

(Chancery Proceedings Charles I M36/20. YH p.586-7)

Lincs. Will of Charles Yarburgh is written in the form of a letter.

This man was grandson of William Y of Alvingham. See 1597 pedigree.

He gifts to his brothers: £40 to John, £70 to Richard. The residue to Matthias
Januaries 26 1642

The gift of £70 (worth £10,000 today) to his brother Richard would have given him the money to set sail for Virginia.

1642 -- 49 Civil War

Families were divided in the English Civil War. The Yorkshire Yarboroughs supported the King. Some of the Lincolnshire Ys supported the Parliamentarians. Captain Robert Yerburch was one of these.

1649 - 1660 Commonwealth. Monarchy suspended.

Yorks. Sir Nicholas Yarburgh fined £600 (= £100,000 today) for his support of Charles I.

1652 Oliver Cromwell was Lord Protector 1653 - 1658

Lincs. Captain Robert Yerburch was ordered to assist in the destruction of Tattershall Castle, near Boston. Robert lived at Boston where he was a Justice of the Peace. His wife was named Mary and his heir, Robert Yerburch. The latter died in 1717.

(See Yarbrough Family Quarterly Volume 10, No.3 pp 4-5)

1655

Yorks. Sir Nicholas Yarburgh died at Snaith. His heir was Thomas Yarburgh.. See 1662.

1658 Richard Cromwell, Oliver's son, was the reluctant Lord Protector. 1658 - 1659

1660 Monarchy restored under Charles II 1660 - 1685

1662

Yorks Thomas (later Sir Thomas) Yarburgh married Henrietta Blagge, daughter of Royalist hero Colonel Blagge. They had sixteen children but six died as infants. This marriage brought Thomas into the royal court circle.

1664

Yorks. James Yarborough, eldest son of Sir Thomas Yarborough, was born in 1664. The Duke of York (later King James II) was his godfather. James Yarborough, aged about ten, became a royal page. As an adult, he rose to be Colonel of the Guards. In 1692. he married the heiress Ann Hesketh of Heslington. Colonel James Yarburgh and Ann lived at Heslington Hall after the death of her father.

1667

Yorks. Henrietta Maria Yarborough, sister of James Yarborough, was born in 1667. She was maid of honour to Queen Catherine (Charles II's wife) and afterward to Queen Mary. She married a baronet in 1688 and had eight children. One of them was Maid of Honour to Queen Anne. (E.R.Y. Some Notes on our Family p.194)

So I end this Chronology of the Yarb(o)roughs with the Yorkshire Ys rising to their zenith and the Alvingham Ys extending their family in Virginia. The Nottingham and Cockerington Ys having established themselves as good County Families. The Yarboroughs may not have been many in number but they are proud of their family and upheld its reputation. They have a good ancestry and worthy progeny.

The Wormeleys and The Yarboroughs

Peter Yerburgh

The Wormleys and Wormeleys

The Wormley branches sprung from a Yorkshire (U.K.) village of the same name. Its origin, I have read somewhere, was due to a giant worm or dragon attacking the area and being destroyed by the local hero, who then called his settlement and himself by the name of Worm slayer.

By the 1300s the descendants of 'the hero' had spread down to other communities along the River Don (a major tributary of the River Humber) towards the port now called Kingston upon Hull. We read of a William Wolmersty of Kingston upon Hull, who in his Will (1375) leaves several shops to his wife, Christina. To his son, Robert, he bequeaths, 'his best mazer (silver mounted drinking bowl), six silver spoons and his best psalter covered with red leather'.

It was probably this son, Robert Wolmersty, who in 1395 had a ocean sailing pinnace in the port of London. In Market Privileges 1391 – 1395 there is the entry 'to allow Robert Wolmersty to load in a ship.....to take to Prussia, 300 dozen hats.' Quite an export - 3600 hats!! In 1404 the same man, with three others, were given permission to load ships with 60 tuns of wine for Ireland.

By the 1500s one branch of this family's had risen to the status of 'esquire' and they were the leading family in a village named Hatfield (perhaps reminiscent of those hats). One of the sons, Christopher Wormley, moved back to Hull and married Elizabeth Hogge. Many researchers have claimed that it was this man's son, also named Christopher Wormley⁴, who sailed to the Caribbean.

⁴ This unlikely as this Christopher was in Yorkshire when the Captain was in Virginia but the latter was probably a cousin.

Tortuga

Christopher Wormley appears in the State papers as being appointed to take men over to Tortuga and create an 'ideal commonwealth'. They were to take men over there to grow tobacco. The Captain was also to harry Spanish shipping in the Spanish Main.

The 'Company' which financed this expedition was called The Provident Company and consisted of twenty shareholders, The capital was £100,000 in 1637 - worth about four million pounds today. The shareholders included two earls and four knights. The King, Charles I, signed the permission for them to undertake the project but as his public policy was one of neutrality towards Spain, he probably turned a blind eye to their attacking Spanish ships.

The State papers show that Christopher was not confined to sailing. In 1635, he was appointed Governor of the Island of Tortuga (also called Association Island). He held this post between 1632-1635. The company gave quite strict orders as to what was not allowed. They forbade card-playing and gaming, whoring, drunkenness and profanity. It was likened to 'three nests of pirates with the morals of a Calvinist theological seminary'.

Virginia

In 1635, the Island of Tortuga was overrun by a Spanish fleet and Captain Christopher sailed for Virginia. There he was appointed, in 1639, Commander in Chief of Elizabeth City and of York county. He married and had a daughter who married the Governor of Virginia, Richard Kemp Esq.

Christopher died in the 1640s and left his tobacco estates to his brother, Ralph Wormeley. In 1649, a royalist Colonel visited Captain Ralph Wormeley's estate in Wormeley's Creek and reported that he "had a kind reception from all of them (Ralph's guests) which answered, if not exceed my expectations." In the same year Ralph was appointed a member of the Virginian Council. Wormeley died before 1651

Ralph's widow was an English lady, Agatha Eltonhead, and his heir was also named Ralph. The latter added fame to the Wormeley family by becoming Secretary of State and Acting Governor of Virginia. The family was by then very wealthy and the line continued in the male line into the late 18th century but in a quieter manner.

Richard Yarbrough

Richard Yarbrough came to Virginia in the 1640s, which is just about the same time as Ralph Wormeley was coming into prominence. The two men lived on different river mouths – The Wormeleys on the York River, the Yarbroughs on the James River. They were about sixty miles apart but it will be remembered that Richard Yarbrough, when acting as an interpreter and had his own vessel and had twice sailed to New York – a voyage of about 200 miles.

It is highly likely that they knew each other – after all a Yarbrough had married a Wormley two decades before. They also had a common interest in growing, exporting and selling tobacco. What interesting stories they could tell if they were to be alive today. Stories of the voyages, encounters with the Indians, the battles with the Spanish but my question would be to them would be, "How exactly are you connected to the main branches of your families?"

DECLARATION

IN ORDER TO OBTAIN THE BENEFITS OF THE ACT OF CONGRESS PASSED 7 JUNE 1832

State of Tennessee

Tipton County

On this 4th day of September in the year of our Lord 1833 personally appeared before Open Court before the Court of pleas and Quarters Sessions of Tipton County aforesaid now sitting Henry Yarbrough Sen. a resident of said county aged about seventy one or two years, who being the first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declarations in order to obtain the benefits of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officer and served as herein stated, "Under Capt. Brittain Fuller I volunteered about the year 1779 or 1780 (which precisely I cannot recollect but I believe I was about 18 or 19 years of age) who commanded a horse company, I furnished my own horse and equipage and in the character of a private soldier I volunteered only for three but served six months. We were marched by Capt. Fuller from Randolph County, N.Carolina where I then lived with my father Zachariah Yarbrough and where I volunteered to Six Mile Creek in State of South Carolina. When we arrived there Capt. Fuller resigned his command and Capt. Jacob Williams of Dan River took it, under whom we continued until he left us, which was about two months. Under Capt. Williams we were disciplined and preformed all the services required of us, such as scouting and collecting provisions. While we were there stationed and employed it was the Col Rugilly the Conspicuous Tory of the Brick House was taken by some of our forces and with him, about two hundred prisoners, who at once surrendered upon the exhibition of pine logs painted and made to resemble cannons. They were all marched into the camp, and subsequently marched northwardly under the command of Capt. Williams. After Williams left us with the prisoners, we passed under the command of a captain of horse whose name I cannot now recollect, but he was attached to General Morgan's command. There was also Col. Washington, Genl. Greene, Linnborn and several others. Some of whom perhaps had no command at that time I believe Genl. Greene was our commander-in-chief. I was actively employed the whole six months in partisan war against the Tories, Having frequent skirmishes with them and sometime pretty sharp fighting, I was then young and being fired with the atrocities of the Tories, I bore hard upon them, sparing the women and children. Capt. Knights and Lieutenant Elijah Williams commanded on those occasions.

We were marched from the Six Mile Creek back to Charlottesville, N. Carolina and there discharged by Gen]. Morgan, who gave me a written discharge. I continued never the less for several years to carry on the partisan war against the Tories, who were so enraged me that I could not stay at home in safety and who did me much damage. I could relate much of the occurrences of the partisan War in the back parts of N.C. and South Carolina if recepory in which I have been previously engaged. Judge Murphy of N.C., when about to write a history of that State sent a man to me requesting a detailed account of this war believing I could furnish a more connected history of those events than any other man he knows. I however was upon the eve of moving to this county, and answered I had no time then to devote to such matters, I was born in the year 1761 or 2 in what was then called Butte but now Franklin County, N. Carolina at about the commencement of the Revolution War; my father moved to Randolph County where we were living when I volunteered in the horse as aforesaid. At about the close of the war we moved to Rowan County, N. Carolina where there are many persons by whom I could prove my services. In the year 1823, I moved to this county, Tipton, Tennessee and where I have resided ever since. I was once told that if I would send my discharge to Capt. Williams of Va. I should draw my pay. I gave it to a man by the name of Davenport. When he returned from Capt. Williams' he informed me that Williams said he had nothing to do with it, that Capt. Fuller the man under whom I volunteered was to make out our payroll. When I Commanded my discharge Davenport said he had fallen into a river and lost his pocket book and all the papers. I did not believe him. I was unable ever to reclaim it and have never recieved any cent for any Service ever rendered by me for the U.S. I have no documentary evidence and know of no person in this state who can testify to my service.

I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension except the present and declare that my name is not on the pension roll of this agency of any State."

Sworn and Subscribed the day and year aforesaid in open court. Henry Yarbrough Sen.

And the said Court do hereby Certify declare their opinion was the above named applicant was a revolutionary Soldier and served as he states

Calling All Edmund Yarbro Descendants!

Edmund Yarbro and his wife, Sophia Gostwick Yarbro, are buried in unmarked graves in their original home site which is located in a remote area on Lost Creek area in Decatur County. It is truly unfortunate that these sites have been overlooked for the past 150+ years, and it is planned to rectify the situation. Joan Singlaub, Tee Devine, and Jerry Yarbro plan to place a marker for the gravesites of Edmund and Sophia in the Yarbro Cemetery near Whites Creek where most of their children are buried.

When details are finalized, a notice and invitation will be posted on the website, <http://www.yarbroughfamily.org>. A NOTABLE YARBROUGH...

Democrat Karen Yarbrough (above right) speaks with volunteer Harriet Jackson outside the Broadview Public Library during voting Tuesday afternoon. Yarbrough was reelected to a sixth term in a landslide victory. With 77 of 80 precincts reporting, unofficial results show that Yarbrough, a Democrat from Maywood, received 88 percent of the vote compared to challenger Princess Cynthia Dempsey, a political newcomer from Broadview who ran as an independent. The district covers the south side of River Forest and a strip of Oak Park along Madison Street, as well as Forest Park, Bellwood, Hillside, Maywood, Westchester, Broadview and Chicago. “I am very pleased with the outpouring of support from the people in the district,” she said Tuesday night. “I have always tried to represent my district the same way a would like someone to represent me.”

Yarbrough is the founder and CEO of Hathaway Insurance Agency. Her family has a history in local politics. Her father, Don Williams, is the former mayor of Maywood and her husband, Henderson Yarbrough, is the current mayor of Maywood. Dempsey has never served as a statewide elected official. Yarbrough said her two biggest priorities in her next term are education and addressing the state’s budget woes. On education, Yarbrough would like to advance a school voucher pilot program, which reimburses students at failing public schools to attend private schools. She co-sponsored a bill introduced this year that would have applied to students at schools that rank in the bottom 10 percent, and would have given the students a $3,700 voucher for private school tuition. The bill passed the senate but failed in the house.

As for the budget, Yarbrough said she would like to see reductions without impacting those dependant on state services. “We need to address the budget concerns while trying to make sure we protect the vulnerable,” she said. “We need to address it without hurting the people who depend on this government.” Yarbrough said that she would like to see the state focus on drug rehabilitation to reduce recidivism rates, which she said would drop prison costs. Dempsey didn’t say where she would want to cut, stating that she would look at the budget further post-election.

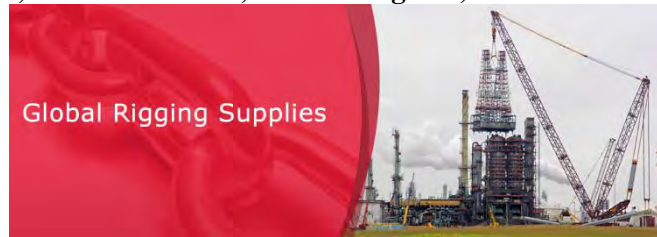

On the economy, Dempsey said she would cut the state corporate tax rate by 10 percent overall. She said this would attract more business to the state. Corporations pay a 4.8 percent income tax, which is state revenue, and a 2.5 percent replacement tax, which is collected by the state and distributed to local governments. Yarbrough said the state should use funds for grants and training to help people become entrepreneurs. She said people who are now unemployed have the necessary skills in their field, but sometimes lack the know-how to run a business.

Tim Yarbrough Elected Editor of the Arkansas Baptist News

Tim Yarbrough of the North American Mission Board was elected as editor of the Arkansas Baptist News by the ABN board of directors Nov. 18.

Yarbrough, 50, has been NAMB's Acts 1:8 challenge coordinator since 2002. He will become ABN editor effective Jan. 1, succeeding Charlie Warren, who is retiring after 11 years as editor.

"I am deeply humbled to be called as the next editor of the Arkansas Baptist News," Yarbrough said. "It has become increasingly evident to me over the past several weeks that God wants my family and me back in Arkansas. It will be a privilege to serve alongside our friends in the state, in addition to making new friends.

"The Arkansas Baptist News is an important trust and should play a significant role in advancing the Gospel of Jesus Christ at home and around the globe," Yarbrough added. "I look forward to telling the story of how God is using Arkansas Baptists to boldly proclaim Christ to a lost and dying world."

In addition to directing the Acts 1:8 strategy for NAMB, Yarbrough earlier served as media strategist and director of church relations at NAMB. Previously he served as the communications director of the Missouri Baptist Convention from 1995-2002. From 1989-95, Yarbrough was an editor of a magazine, books and other publications at the Baptist Brotherhood Commission, which later merged with NAMB.

"The board of trustees of the ABN is very excited about our new editor, Tim Yarbrough," said Erby Burgess, ABN board president. "Tim brings with him experience, leadership and journalism skills and a wealth of ideas to creatively communicate Christ's story to the masses.

"Tim has a heart for missions, for Southern Baptists and for God's Kingdom work," added Burgess, pastor of Park Hill Baptist Church in Arkadelphia. "The work of the Arkansas Baptist News -- to inform, inspire and involve Arkansas Baptists in fulfilling the Great Commission -- will be greatly enhanced by Tim's leadership. I hope all Arkansas Baptists will plug into the ABN and be better informed so as to strengthen our effort of witnessing to Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and the uttermost parts of the earth."

Yarbrough's election came as a recommendation of the ABN personnel committee, chaired by Judy Shaddox, a member of Park Hill Baptist Church of North Little Rock.

"Tim is definitely the right person to continue the legacy of great editors who have 'informed, inspired and involved' Arkansas Baptists in the work of God," Shaddox said. "He not only brings a wealth of experience in journalism and technology, but a career that is marked with strong commitment to Southern Baptist work and to missions. His enthusiastic dedication to Christ and to the people in the pews is contagious."

Born in Kennett, Mo., Yarbrough's family moved to Arkansas in 1967, settling in Jonesboro. Yarbrough was saved during a revival at Walnut Street Baptist Church in Jonesboro. He and his wife Pamm were married in 1986 at First Baptist Church in Russellville. They also have been members of Baring Cross Baptist Church of North Little Rock and First Baptist Church of Maumelle.

2011 Conference

Hall H. Yarbrough

2011Conf@yarbroughfamily.org

The YNGHA is a not-for-profit corporation chartered in the Commonwealth of Virginia for the purposes of Yarbrough family genealogical research and education about the deeds and accomplishments of the extended Yarbrough families. There are nearly one hundred extant spellings of the name, and all members of these families are eligible for membership in the Association. Dues are $30.00/year and may be paid online or mailed to the treasurer (see above for contact information). Queries, comments and/or suggestions may be sent to the Editor and/or the Secretary. The annual corporate meeting is held concurrently with the annual conference.

² The number in parentheses denotes the year in which the Director's term expires.

The President's Corner ...

Greetings to each of our new members and to all members! We appreciate all of you faithful members of which many have been with us since the very beginning !

Your Board of Directors is very busy with the many activities we're continuing to implement for our YNGHA ! We are now focusing on our special event of the year which is our " ANNUAL CONFERENCE"! Please plan to join us in Nashville!

Our Board of Directors have three areas we're focusing our attention on:

1. to copy all our "research books" to digital.
2. To continue our DNA program .
3. to "grow" our membership!

We encourage you to volunteer to assist our board members with these projects.

In the weeks ahead be sure to share with your Y. family members your story when you discovered your heritage in YNGHA. "If we fail to inform our children and grandchildren, our future generations may never have this rich knowledge of our ancestors". Let's pledge to inform them on how important it is to carry on the "travel back in time" information about their family history. I have made a list of my Y. cousins and am writing them a personal note with an application I printed from our www.yarbrofamily.org . If you would like to have a copy, let me know by letter or e-mail! It would please me to hear from you.

We are so grateful to our founders for their wisdom, devotion and commitment to form our" Yarbrough National Genealogical and Historical Association. I would appreciate all founding members to write us a letter or e-mail telling me about "your story" of the early days so we can share with our membership!

We are so pleased to announce that our Vice-President, Bill Yarbrough has accepted the chairmanship of our "Research Books to be Digitized" and Leonard Yarbrough our editor will serve as Co-Chairman!

We regret to inform you that our DNA Chairman, Jim Yarbrough, passed away in March. He will be missed and we are grateful for his contribution to our group by his devotion to bringing the DNA Program to us as well as many new members he sponsored during his research work with the Yarbrough DNA project.

Thank you for supporting me as your president and remember that it is urgent that you read and take action on the Conference Form in this quarterly ASAP, as the downtown hotels fill up very early in . for the many sports events in Nashville during the fall.

Fondly, Joan Singlaub

NOTICE!

The YNGHA has an urgent need for someone to assume the duties of the Project Coordinator for the Yarbrough DNA Project. While an in-depth knowledge of the DNA testing process is not essential, computer/internet skills are necessary. Please indicate a willingness to take on this important task by notifying the YNGHA at DNA@yarbrofamily.org.

Jottings... It's time to begin making plans for attending the annual conference, and Jim, Hal and Barbara have been in high gear planning for this event. Although I knew of the first family conference in Petersburg, the 1984 Nashville conference was the first time I learned of the YNGHA. Thanks to a hectic work schedule and other commitments, I wasn't able to attend a conference until the Memphis event in 1988. Once I had attended, I very much regret waiting so long. Having for a time worked in Nashville, I am looking forward to seeing old friends there as well as meeting some new ones. It's a great town to visit as well as being a really nice place to live.

By the time this issue is delivered, I will be recuperating from the second knee surgery. It will be wonderful to be able again to perambulate without hobbling or aching and moaning. We are truly blessed to have the quality of medical care that is available, and I am even more blessed to be located near a superb medical community.

The archival digitization project is moving to the front burners, although there is still some coordination and planning work to be done. There are twenty-two boxes, some 260 notebooks in all, and that is quite a collection of paper. Our options are really limited — pay for conversion services or do the job ourselves. Fortunately, the cost estimates we have so far appear to be within the reach of our finances, and we are presently trying to decide how many discrete steps the conversion process will entail. The first major hurdle is to inventory and catalog our holdings. (I can't believe that this hasn't been done). An important part of the digitization process is the generation of accurate indices, which will certainly improve our researchers' ability to delve into the records. We will also make these records available online as soon as we have the digital records are in hand.

— Leonard

SERENDIPITY, LUCK OR COINCIDENCE³

Elaine Wolf

I laughed when my daughter Linda gave me a huge Pedigree Chart which she wanted me to fill. Two generations did not do it justice. It lay dormant until she was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. It was May. I worked all summer on my McMahan ancestors while helping her deal with all that goes such news. By the time she died in November, I had compiled three notebooks — one for each of our children. I had found four generations, one cemetery and many questions. We hit a road block that still exists. Thanks to email that comes with many unknown names attached I saw the address of Jim Yarbrough. I was not shy about writing him to see if we were related. He covered me up with information. First was my Father's lineage back to John, son of Richard. Second he gave me the names of people who were researching the same line, William and Marie Shaefer. Third, he sent me a CD of the Yarbrough Quarterly.

³ Editor's Note: Most of us have a story such as related by Elaine. Hers serves to remind us that we can find a "nugget" in some of the most unlikely places. We'd be happy to publish your tale of finding your ancestors.

With this information, I tripped down to Kinko's and had books compiled for each of my seven grandchildren. Little did I know that when as a child my Mother told me that Daddy was a descendant of the House of Yarbrough that it was not a fairy tale. How she knew this before the age of technology, I do not know. At this point everything I know about the Yarbroughs was given to me on a silver platter and I am so grateful. The best part has been getting to know and appreciate Jim, William, Marie and all the cousins I met in Huntsville. Next I would like to qualify for DAR --as a surprise for my 25 year old Granddaughter,

I have been married to my husband Lyle for 56 years. We both grew up in Nashville and were high school sweethearts. We have lived in Lexington, KY, for 54 years where my husband had a Consulting Engineering company. We have spent the month of January for the past 19 years in a small fishing village south of Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

YNGHA Conferences

For those who may be interested in such things, here is a listing⁴ of the conference locations since the inception of the Association. Notice that every ten years, the YNGHA convenes in Petersburg, the resting place of our oldest known American ancestor, Richard ("The Immigrant") Yarborough. If custom continues, we will convene again in Petersburg for the 2012 conference, tour the area and visit Old Blandford Church and its cemetery.

EDMUND & SOPHIA YARBROUGH GRAVESTONE MARKER PROJECT

Joan Singlaub

The Purpose for this project is to place a marker for Edmund and Sophia in the Yarbrough Cemetery at Whites Creek, which was founded by their son, Henry, on his farm. He and his wife, Delilah, are buried there as well as many members of the Yarbrough family including two of our more recent Board of Directors, Charles Henry and William Guy Yarbro.

The marker will be a nice size vertical granite stone with wording that will clarify that they are the first Yarbrough couple to settle in Decatur County. They are buried on their farm called "Lost Creek" just a few miles from "The Henry Yarbrough Cemetery" where the marker will be located. We also plan to place a small gravestone at their actual gravesites at the Lost Creek Farm. Their graves have disappeared and even the actual location of the graves are unknown!

The marker project will cost approximately $3,500.00. We have set up an account for donations to be sent to:

Decatur County Bank
56 N. Pleasant St.
Decaturville, TN 38329

Contact Information for account: Ben Dudly Yarbro Tel: 731-252-2821

The date for the Memorial Dedication Service has been planned for September 11, 2011.

Our committee has decided that by moving this event to the Sunday after our conference, that perhaps many of the conference attendees would be interested attending. The Whites Creek cemetery is about 2-3 hour drive from Nashville.

Our Committee thanks you for your support to this long past due project for our ancestors!

Moore Yarbrough Family Reunion

Rusty Moore

This year's Moore Yarbrough Family Reunion will be held the weekend of June 24 - 26th at the Selah Inn & Ranch www.selahranch.com just north of Mount Vernon, Texas. This will be a very special reunion, since we will be having two special dedication ceremonies:

Dedication and Commemoration of Captain James Archie Yarbrough: Our Great, Great Grandfather who survived the "Civil War" and the ravages of Reconstruction, moved his family from Athens, Alabama to Franklin County, Texas in the late 1890's or early 1900's. Shortly thereafter, his eldest daughter, Laura Yarbrough Moore, wife of L. P. Moore and family joined them here. As a young man, he was heir to a 1/3 interest in a 3,600 acre plantation in Limestone County, Alabama. When the War broke out he enlisted and was appointed to Captain and Assistant Quartermaster of the 31st East Tennessee Regiment, CSA. His grave site will be dedicated by an Honor Guard conducted by the Sons of Confederate Veterans. All Moore and Yarbrough Family members are encouraged to attend.

Dedication of the Yarbrough Oak Tree: This White Oak Tree was recently transplanted to Fairview Cemetery near the grave site of Thomas Yarbrough Moore, the second son of Luke P. and Laura Yarbrough Moore. This tree is the procreation from the famous Yarbrough Oak in Oxford, Georgia originally collected from a selection of acorns by the Georgia State Nursery. The sapling, now about 6 feet tall, was acquired by one of our family members who was the "high bidder" at auction during the National Yarbrough Family Reunion in Huntsville, Alabama in September 2009. The dedication will be in memory of the Yarbrough and Moore Families who settled in Franklin and Hopkins County area.

Notes for NATHANIEL YARBROUGH:

[YarboroughMaster.FBK]

Nathaniel was a drinking man who liked to gamble. In order to prevent his gambling away the family home, his brother Charles convinced Nathaniel to sign the property over to him. Nathaniel went on a business trip to Dinwiddie Co., VA. (where some of the family still lived) and he died about three months after he got there, on 21 May 1803. Unfortunately, the deed to his property was never signed back over to his family by Charles. Charles died in 1812 and Nathaniel's property became part of Charles' estate. There was a long and bitter court battle over this, with Nathaniel's family losing.

Lest We Forget

On September 8, 1944, an M4 Sherman Tank was destroyed by enemy fire. It was part of the 753rd Tank Battalion attached to the US 36th Infantry Division landing at Provençe on August 15, 1944. After the battles in Provençe and in the Rhone valley, this unit reached the Doubs' area in early September. This tank was destroyed at Saint Vit, near Besançon. The inside was completely carbonized. There remained practically nothing of the bodies of these soldiers. Because of this, they are not buried in the Epinal American Cemetery; rather, they are registered on the wall of the "reported missing." Those tankers memorialized by the French include Sgt. Clyde B. Yarborough of Texas, Technician 5th Class John E. Borkowski of New York, Corporal Ira Evans of Mississippi, Private Delbert V. Hobb of Missouri, and Private Richard W. Souder of Nebraska.

— Submitted by Joan Singlaub, Franklin, TN.

WILLIAM R. YARBROUGH NLRB Appointment

General Counsel Ronald Meisburg of the National Labor Relations Board today announced the appointment of William (“Bill”) Yarbrough as Deputy Regional Director in the Agency’s Memphis, TN Regional Office (Region 26). In his new position, Mr. Yarbrough will assist Regional Director Ronald K. Hooks in the enforcement and administration of the National Labor Relations Act in Region 26, which includes the Resident Offices in Nashville, TN and Little Rock, AR.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act, the federal law that regulates labor-management relations in the private sector. The Agency conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates, prosecutes and remedies unfair labor practices committed by employers and unions.

Commenting on the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg remarked:

Bill Yarbrough is a very effective and experienced supervisor who is highly qualified to serve as Deputy Director. Throughout his career, Bill’s outstanding analytical skills have served him and the Region well in case handling matters, including his significant contribution to the recent settlement in the Flour Daniel, Inc. cases. His new position will help to ensure Region 26 continues the tradition of excellence in the Memphis Regional and Resident Offices.

Born in Memphis, TN, Mr. Yarbrough graduated with a B.A. degree in Business Administration in 1969 from Memphis State University. Before the NLRB, he served as a Revenue Officer for the Internal Revenue Service, and joined the NLRB in 1979 as a Field Examiner in the Memphis Regional Office.

2011 Conference

James F. Yarbrough
Hall H. Yarbrough
Barbara Blanton
2011Conf@yarbroughfamily.org

The YNGHA is a not-for-profit corporation chartered in the Commonwealth of Virginia for the purposes of Yarbrough family genealogical research and education about the deeds and accomplishments of the extended Yarbrough families. There are nearly one hundred extant spellings of the name, and all members of these families are eligible for membership in the Association. Dues are $30.00/year and may be paid online or mailed to the treasurer (see above for contact information). Queries, comments and/or suggestions may be sent to the Editor and/or the Secretary. The annual corporate meeting is held concurrently with the annual conference.

² The number in parentheses denotes the year in which the Director's term expires.

The President's Corner ...

Dear Members and Friends:

Greetings to you on the eve of the 234th Celebration of our Nations Independence Day!

As we are preparing for our "Fourth of July" activities to be with family and friends, picnics and of course "fireworks" to close the events of this special day, let us "take a step back in time" to recall how our great nation was founded!

The Yarbrough family is indeed one of our country's early pioneer families!

Genealogical studies and records show that there were at least three main Yarbrough immigrants to America from England.

Richard Yarbrough to Amelia County, VA in 1653 from Lincolnshire.

Ambrose Yarbrough to Amelia County, VA in 1732 from Yorkshire.

Guy Yarbrough to Virginia between 1750 and 1760 from Lincolnshire.

It is generally assumed that most of the Yarbroughs, Yarboros, Yarbros, Yarbroughs, Yarbars and Yarberrys as well as other variations of the name, in the United States today have descended from these three men. Their sons, grandsons, and great-grandsons migrated from Virginia west into Kentucky and south into the Carolinas and then into Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and later on west. Not one "Yarbrough" family is known anywhere outside of Virginia before 1720!

Our annual "Yarbrough Family" Conference is in Nashville, TN this September 8-10 ! You will find the registration form in this issue for you to complete as well as make your hotel reservations ASAP to be sure you have a room at the conference hotel. Some members will be arriving on Thursday afternoon the 8th for sightseeing and enjoying the entertainment venues, as well as, beginning their research on their ancestor's family line in our Research Room with our researchers and other members using the large number of books and documents available also copy machines for your use. Several programs and events are planned to assist our members in discovery of their personal family line!

Saturday evening is our Family Dinner which will be held in the revolving dining room on the top floor of our hotel where we will enjoy the panorama view of Nashville, as well as, fellowship with Yarbrough cousins from coast to coast, develop lifetime friendships and start the plans for our next conference which will be 2012 in Petersburg, VA. It will be our YNGHA's 20th and our 1st Immigrant, Richard Yarbrough's 310th Anniversary of his death. Bob Yarbrough plans to show us the video he made in 2002 at the "300th Anniversary Re-enactment of Richard's Funeral" at the Old Blandford Church where his grave is located just outside the door of the church. You can visit the Old Blandford Church, Petersburg, VA at this website:

<http://vagenweb.petersburghistory.com/old/cemetery/blandfd1.htm>

Thank you for supporting me as your president and remember that it is urgent that you read and take action on the Conference Form in this quarterly, as the downtown hotels fill up very early because of the many sports events in Nashville during the fall.

I want you to join us for this historical gathering of our Yarbrough families in September at the Sheraton Nashville Downtown!

Fondly, Joan Y. Singlaub
President, YNGHA

Jottings... Where does the time go?!? It seems as though it was only last week that the new year began, and summer is upon us, coming in with a rash of extreme weather and other accompanying events. No more Bin Laden, a member of Congress or so, and peculiar goings-on in general by members of society. The old Chinese curse of "May your life be interesting!" seems to be fully operant.

Things have been a bit slow here — the new knee is about fully healed, and the detritus from the storms is more or less scavenged up and burned. A bit more investigation into the requirements of digitizing our records has been made, but the weather and knee have hampered that a bit. Hopefully, a much more favorable report will be forthcoming at the Conference in Nashville.

Mrs. Elizabeth Yarbrough and I are pleased to introduce Opal Clara Lehman-Yarbrough. Opal was born December 3, 2010, in Decatur, GA. The daughter of our son, Leonard Kirkwood Yarbrough and Alison Lehman, she is of course an archetypical Yarbrough — intelligent, good-looking, determined, and completely charming. She is, it goes without saying, the apple of her parents' and grandparents' eyes.

Opal Clara Lehman-Yarbrough

Relative to Opal, this evoked the thought as to how much we inform our children and grandchildren about our family history and heritage? Typically, as children and young adults we seldom inquire into these subjects, turning our attention to them much too late in life when the closest sources for information have passed on. With our technology today, fortunately, we can record what we know and leave it as a legacy for our descendants. Those of us in the YNGHA have what it takes to do much of this. Can we do more? Let us know how we do the job better, whether by letter, telephone or email.

— Leonard

Volunteer Wanted...

The YNGHA has an urgent need for someone to assume the duties of the Project Coordinator for the Yarbrough DNA Project. While an in-depth knowledge of the DNA testing process is not essential, computer/internet skills are necessary. This is an on-going, vital and extremely interesting activity for our Association. Contact the YNGHA at DNA@yarbroughfamily.org or call 205-429-3435 to learn more about the requirements of this function.

HONORING OUR HERITAGE

(More About the Edmund & Sophia Yarbrough Gravestone Marker Project)

Joan Singlaub

We of the Yarbrough/Yarbro clan have a wonderful opportunity before us. Many of us can trace our lineage back to Edmund Yarbrough, the first Yarbrough to settle in Decatur/Perry County. Sometime after 1818 Edmund and his wife Sophia and their children travelled by wagon to the headwaters of the Tennessee River in Eastern TN. There after they built a flat boat and floated down the Tennessee River. They were caught in a current that pushed them up a small hidden stream which is now named Lost Creek in Decatur County. Edmund tied his flat boat at the first high point he came to and eventually built his first cabin where he lived and raised his family of eight children all born in North Carolina:

Aquila b.1788/89

Sucafiah (Sophia) b.1798

Henry b.1790

Nancy b.1799

James b.1792

Joseph b. 1800

William b. 1794

John H. b.1805

Edmund (1766-1850) and wife, Sophia Gostwick (1761-1841) were married December 5, 1789 in Franklin County, NC. They are buried at their Lost Creek farm in the Yarbro Cemetery, located east of Decaturville in the Mt. Lebanon Community. Their graves are unmarked and in a densely wooded area. To find their graves, turn at W.E. Turpin's place onto a passable gravel road. It is about a five minute walk from the Turpin home.

There are 37 graves, of which about 30 have stones without names. The cemetery is no longer in use. (This cemetery was indexed on January 1, 1976 by Margaret Smith Alexander.) The following information was added to her document on April 21, 1980. "Edmund Yarbro b. about 1766 d. 1851 – Sophia Gossett Yarbro b. about 1768 – d. 8-7-1841" It states that "These graves are unmarked, and the information came from Benny Yarbro's family records on January 31, 1979."

We, the descendants of Edmund and Sophia, plan to honor them by placing stone markers in the Yarbro Cemetery. To get there, take the road to Mt. Carmel from Highway 69 South; turn off main road at Guy Yarbro's home and follow the road. The cemetery is on a hill on the left. The graveyard is fenced with 46 or more graves. While family members have been cutting the grass, it lacks maintenance. A tree has fallen on the fence and broken it. Edmund and Sophia's son, Henry and wife Deliah started this cemetery on their farm and are buried there with many family members. We also plan to place a marker on the location where Edmund's cabin stood on Lost Creek.

During the research for this project we found documents that state "The first Yarbro to come to Decatur County (at that time it was known as Perry County) was EDMUND YARBRO and his immediate family, of which there is a detailed history from his arrival in this county up to now....." (YNGHA archives "General Background of the Yarbrough Family" Charles Yarbro, Yarbrough Family Magazine) We are now investigating the possibility of having a historical marker for the area.

Zachariah (Joab) Yarborough

The last issue provided the genealogy report of Henry Yarborough (b. ca. 1724, VA, m. Martha Robinson). However, no mention was made of his father, Thomas (ca 1685 VA). Thomas had five proven children – Henry, Thomas, Jr., John, Zachariah, and Manoah. There may be two other children, Archibald and Alexander, whose provenance so far as known hasn't yet been documented.

This issue continues with Zachariah, another of Thomas' children. Zachariah has a prolific number of descendants, so the presentation of this line will be split between this and subsequent issues. His children are a case study in the naming of children by our ancestors; Zachariah's proven children are Henry, Alexander, Manoah, and Thomas! Compare this with the list of Thomas' children. In addition there are these unproven children (if they existed at all): Zachariah, Archibald, Julia, Elizabeth, John, and William. No wonder our researchers spend so much time trying to unravel who is whom!

Again, the caveat that while it is believed these records are accurate, errors do creep in under the best of circumstances, so the reader/viewer is cautioned to always verify what is reported by others.

The genealogy report for Zachariah begins as follows:

1. ZACHARIAH "JOAB"¹ YARBROUGH (THOMAS^A YARBOROUGH)¹ was born ca. 1731 in „VA¹, and died in Lexington, NC¹. He married ELIZABETH DOWD¹ in „Rowan, NC¹. She was born ca. 1733 in „Rowan, VA¹, and died ca. 1775¹.

Notes for ZACHARIAH "JOAB" YARBROUGH:

This is one of the proven children of Thomas Y.

Children:

NP 1. Zachariah b. ca1755 m. Merrill ?

P 2. Henry b. 1761/2 Granville, Bute-Franklin Co., NC. d. 30 Jan 1843 Tipton Co., Tn. m. Brigett Davis 29 Aug 1785 m. Mary Cunningham 13 Sept 1802

NP 3. Archibald b. ca1763

NP 4. Julia b. 1765 m. Barnabus Bower 25 ___? 1802 Davidson Co., Nc.

P 5. Alexander b. ca1766 d. >1850 Tn.

NP 6. Elizabeth b. ca1767 m. George Nicks

P 7. Manoah b. 1771 NC. d. 27 Sept 1836 St. Clair Co., Al. m. Mary Cunningham 16 Aug 1799

NP 8. John b. ca1773

NP 9. William b. ca1775

P 10. Thomas b. (6 Oct?) 1778 d. June 1833 m. Jemina Merrill 1794

This is the list of children from family Traditions. The ones marked "P" have been proven by records. There may have been other children.

"I've never found a marriage record for Zach and Elizabeth. It is my theory now that Zach left Va. and went first to Anson Co., NC.--possibly with relatives of the Ambrose Y. line who left Va. about the same time Zach did and they settled in Anson Co. (which bordered Rowan Co. at that time). One early researcher stated he married Elizabeth Dowd in Anson Co., NC. with no proof or reasons for the statement. My research of the NC Dowd family shows they came from Ireland directly to NC. The only Dowd I've found the right age to have been Elizabeth's father so far is a Caleb Dowd--but I can't locate any records showing his family. Goodspeed states Henry Y. is of Irish Descent. The Y's are English/Danish. But this statement about Henry possibly refers to his mothers line. Please note the above is just a theory on my part."--Karen Mazock

In the original article that refers to the 7 brothers, it says " Between the years of 1729 and 1775, seven brothers of the Yarbroughs went over to Louisburg, in Franklin County." This was not 7 brothers.--It appears to be three brothers and 4 of their sons..more accurately, Thomas, his sons and grandsons.

"Before the Revolution of Independence in 1775, Zachariah left Louisburg and settled in Rowan County. (now Davidson since 1823) There he met and married Elizabeth Doud." (Letter of Mrs. Nelle Jenkins)

Letter from Karen Mazock, dated 26 Jan 1991:

I believe that I have found almost proof positive that the "Joab" referred to in the early Rowan County records is none other than our Zachariah Y. There are two state land grants to Joab Y...he sells one to Thomas Y (my ancestor and brother to your Henry). The strange thing is that in a property description in a 1796 deed, there is a reference to the Joab Y that year.

I have always found it strange that Zachariah Y. does not appear on the census records, but this Joab does for the years when Zachariah should have been there.

On the deed index and on one of the census records, it refers to a Jacob Y. I looked up the deed and it is definitely Joab Y, not Jacob. This is a printed census index and I think the transcriber just misread it. I have only looked at the printed census records and am wondering if the original record would also show that Jacob was actually Joab and just misread by the transcriber. I suspect that this will turn out to be the case.

We know that Zach was born about 1731 from the year that he first appeared on the tithe list in Virginia. I know that Zachariah is the same as Joab in the deed records. If the Joab/Jacob in the census records should also prove to be the same person, then Zachariah lived to be in his 90's. He got a land grant in 1802 in Randolph County (under the name Zachariah). This land was entered in 1794, so it seems that Zachariah should have been on the 1800 census of Randolph County. However, there is no Zachariah in Randolph County--just a Jacob Y. There is no Zachariah Y on the 1790 census, but in Rowan County is Joab Y. Again on the 1810 census is Jacob Yarbrough and on the 1820 Rowan County census is Jacob Y living alone. The 1820 census for Randolph County is missing.

As I said, I know that Zachariah/Joab/Jacob is one man in the deed records. I need to look at the original census records to see if Joab could possibly been misread as Jacob on them. If that turns out to be the case, I think we have found Zachariah for the years he is "missing".

I keep wondering what Zachariah actually did for a living. He doesn't appear to have been much of a farmer. He only had 50 acres when he sold out and left Bute County in 1775. When he got his land grants in Rowan County, the longest he held either of them was 2 years.

Once I finish the marriage records, I am going to go back to this. I've asked a cousin who works at the Davidson County, Nc library to look up the old census records on microfilm and see if she can tell anything about the names Joab/Jacob on them.

If there was actually a JACOB Y there, he is the only Y there we haven't identified. In the deed records, "Jacob" is very clearly "Joab"... and the record is wonderfully clear and legible.

Oh, well, this is something that I am working on and since it is also your line, I thought it might interest you.

Best wishes,
(signed Karen)

There is also a Joab Yarbrough who married Ezbel Lusk 24 Mar 1785 in Randolph Co., NC. with John Gilliam as Bondsman.

DECLARATION

IN ORDER TO OBTAIN THE BENEFITS OF THE ACT OF CONGRESS PASSED 7 JUNE 1832

State of Tennessee

Tipton County

On this 4th day of September in the year of our Lord 1833 personally appeared before Open Court before the Court of pleas and Quarters Sessions of Tipton County aforesaid now sitting Henry Yarbrow Sen. a resident of said county aged about seventy one or two years, who being the first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declarations in order to obtain the benefits of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officer and served as herein stated, "Under Capt. Brittain Fuller I volunteered about the year 1779 or 1780 (which precisely I cannot recollect but I believe I was about 18 or 19 years of age) who commanded a horse company, I furnished my own horse and equipage and in the character of a private soldier I volunteered only for three but served six months. We were marched by Capt. Fuller from Randolph County, N.Carolina where I then lived with my father Zachariah Yarbrow and where I volunteered to Six Mile Creek in State of South Carolina. When we arrived there Capt. Fuller resigned his command and Capt. Jacob Williams of Dan River took it, under whom we continued until he left us, which was about two months. Under Capt. Williams we were disciplined and preformed all the services required of us, such as scouting and collecting provisions. While we were there stationed and employed it was the Col Rugilly the Conspicuous Tory of the Brick House was taken by some of our forces and with him, about two hundred prisoners, who at once surrendered upon the exhibition of pine logs painted and made to resemble cannons. They were all marched into the camp, and subsequently marched northwardly under the command of Capt. Williams. After Williams left us with the prisoners, we passed under the command of a captain of horse whose name I cannot now recollect, but he was attached to General Morgan's command. There was also Col. Washington, Genl. Greene, Linnborn and several others. Some of whom perhaps had no command at that time I believe Genl. Greene was our commander-in-chief. I was actively employed the whole six months in partisan war against the Tories, Having frequent skirmishes with them and sometime pretty sharp fighting, I was then young and being fired with the atrocities of the Tories, I bore hard upon them, sparing the women and children. Capt. Knights and Lieutenant Elijah Williams commanded on those occasions.

We were marched from the Six Mile Creek back to Charlottesville, N. Carolina and there discharged by Genl. Morgan, who gave me a written discharge. I continued never the less for several years to carry on the partisan war against the Tories, who were so enraged me that I could not stay at home in safety and who did me much damage. I could relate much of the occurrences of the partisan War in the back parts of N.C. and South Carolina if recepory in which I have been previously engaged. Judge Murphy of N.C., when about to write a history of that State sent a man to me requesting a detailed account of this war believing I could furnish a more connected history of those events than any other man he knows. I however was upon the eve of moving to this county, and answered I had no time then to devote to such matters, I was born in the year 1761 or 2 in what was then called Butte but now Franklin County;, N. Carolina at about the commencement of the Revolution War; my father moved to Randolph County where we were living when I volunteered in the horse as aforesaid. At about the close of the war we moved to Rowan County, N. Carolina where there are many persons by whom I could prove my services. In the year 1823, I moved to this county, Tipton, Tennessee and where I have resided ever since. I was once told that if I would send my discharge to Capt. Williams of Va. I should draw my pay. I gave it to a man by the name of Davenport. When he returned from Capt. Williams' he informed me that Williams said he had nothing to do with it, that Capt. Fuller the man under whom I volunteered was to make out our payroll. When I Commanded my discharge Davenport said he had fallen into a river and lost his pocket book and all the papers. I did not believe him. I was unable ever to reclaim it and have never received any cent for any Service ever rendered by me for the U.S. I have no documentary evidence and know of no person in this state who can testify to my service.

I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension except the present and declare that my name is not on the pension roll of this agency of any State."

Sworn and Subscribed the day and year aforesaid in open court.
Henry Yarbrough Sen.

And the said Court do hereby Certify declare their opinion was the above named applicant was a revolutionary Soldier and served as he states

D.A. DUNHAM

What Some Yarbroughs Are Doing

David Yarbrough — David Yarbrough matriculated from the Carrollton, TX, Farmers Branch Independent School District. Now he believes it is his time to give back to the district that educated him by running for Place 2 on the school board. He believes that it is time for a fresh set of eyes to look at the problems facing the district and he wants to offer ways to move the district forward.

"I have lived in Carrollton for 31 years. I want to serve the community and I looked to see where I could make the biggest impact," Yarbrough said. "I currently have two boys in this district. I want them school." Yarbrough feels he can improve the district by addressing current issues such as the budget. He thinks the district can cut excessive spending and focus on students. In addition, he believes that teachers are vital to the district and should be allowed to teach since they are interacting with students every day.

"The district needs a new vision and you do not get that with the current board," Yarbrough said. "Do not get me wrong, I feel like our current board has done a great job, but I feel you need fresh ideas every so often. I feel it is that time." Yarbrough wants to get the entire community involved in the district, even those who do not have a student in the district. He wants feedback from the community then apply that to improve both the school board and the district.

"I want people to seek out C-FB ISD as a place they want to bring the family and have their kids grow up," he said. "It was important to my family, and I want it to be important to others."

Yarbrough started at Davis Elementary and went through the district where he graduated from Newman Smith High School in 1992. He and wife, Jennifer, have been married for 15 years and have two boys at Davis Elementary.

The USS Yarborough

The USS Yarborough (DD-314) was a Clemson-class destroyer in the United States Navy during World War II. She was named for George Hampton Yarborough, Jr., who was an officer in the United States Marine Corps and a recipient of the Navy Cross. Born at Roxboro, North Carolina, Yarborough enrolled in class no. 4, Marine Corps Reserve, on 7 April 1917, the day after the United States entered World War I, and was given the provisional rank of second lieutenant. After instruction at the Marine Barracks, Parris Island, South Carolina, he reported to the Marine Barracks at Philadelphia, PA, on June 4, 1917 for duty with the 16th Company, 5th Regiment of Marines. Yarborough sailed for France on June 14th; and reached St. Nazaire on the 27th.

Yarborough, promoted to first lieutenant on August 11, 1917, served two tours of detached duty while assigned to the 5th Regiment, first at Cosne, France, between December 8, 1917 and January 4, 1918, and then at Gondrecourt, France, between February 22 and April 29, 1918.

On June 23, 1918, the height of the Battle of Belleau Wood, Lt. Yarborough arrived on the front lines. The next day, intense enemy fire from skillfully placed machine guns pinned down Yarborough's unit and platoon in a support position in the American lines. The young lieutenant dashed from one shell hole to another, in the open, steadying his men, until a burst of machine gun fire hit him. Severely wounded, he refused aid until other wounded men in his unit received medical attention. Finally moved to shelter, he succumbed to his severe gunshot wounds on June 26th. Cited for his bravery, First Lieutenant Yarborough was posthumously awarded both the Distinguished Service Cross and the Navy Cross.

The President's Corner . . .

Dear Members and Friends: Your Board of Directors is very pleased with the results of our 2011 Annual Conference with members coming from AL, AR, CA., GA, IA, KY, MN, NC, OK, LA, MO, UT, TN, TX and VA! Congratulations to our Conference Chairman, Hal Yarbrough and his Committee, as well as many thanks to all who attended and to those who have shared with us their photos, notes and messages! Details and photos are in this issue! Here are two notes that sum up many of the comments we have received:

“I was impressed with the Yarbrough Annual Conference in Nashville and thrilled to meet all the Yarboroughs. Leonard Yarbrough’s presentation on DNA was most interesting and amazing....The enthusiasm and leadership was very evident. I was so impressed reading the research in the binders that you had in the Research Room. The dinner was delightful and the skit “Sophia & Edmund Y.’s Surprise Visit” was most interesting and entertaining.”(Lee Yarborough)

Another letter reads..... I wish I had been able to write you immediately following our meeting in Nashville to share the exuberance I felt after only one and a half days participation. To finally meet in person the cousins to whom I am closely related and those whom we might find connections through another line was exciting. I loved spending time with Rusty Moore, the great-great-grandson of our West End High School beloved Principal, Dr. William Henry Yarbrough, “Doc.” It was as special as having “dear Doc” in our midst again. Your meeting has to stand out as one of the best.....the hotel location was perfect with so many historical venues within walking distance.....the give and take generated such enthusiasm for the many worthwhile projects, made my head spin.”(Elaine Wolf)

We are now planning for our ” 2012 ANNUAL CONFERENCE” where we will be returning (as we do every ten years) to the gravesite of our earliest known ancestor, Richard Yarbrough, in Petersburg, VA ! (The January 2012 Quarterly will have date and details.)

Thank you for your support and for electing me your president for another year!

Wishing you a Happy Thanksgiving and a Blessed Christmas!

Joan Y. Singlaub

Jottings... Oh my, what a lovely conference we had in Nashville last month! If you were there, you know what I mean, and if you weren't, well — we really missed you. The most striking feature of this year's conference was the enthusiasm and energy exhibited by the attendees. Everything seemed to come together perfectly — the venue, the attendees, the program. I think the included conference snapshots pretty well reflect how things went the entire time. The venue was great, as was its location in the heart of downtown Nashville. Many took advantage of the nearby library and research facilities, as well as of the many attractions in the area. I provided an update about our DNA

Project, and Bill Yarbrough/Memphis discussed the steps to be taken in getting our records digitized. We rewarded the officers by reelecting them, and they have done a great job this past year. Much to my surprise, the YNGHA honored me with a very nice plaque (next page). The banquet was delightful, held in the rotating restaurant at the top of our hotel, with a magnificent view of downtown Nashville. A special treat followed the meal — Tee Y. Devine and her brother Jan Yarbrough, enacted a skit about Edmund Yarbrough and his wife Sophia (Gostwick) and their settling in Decatur County, Tennessee. It was very well done! From one of the new attendees, I learned that my gggf Jonathan is likely buried in Sand Rock Methodist Church Cemetery, in Cherokee County, AL. All the information I have so far indicates that he spent his last days in Texas Valley, north of Rome, GA. For those of you who haven't attended one of our conferences, this is not a rare occurrence, although this is the first time I've had one occur for me!

Next year, we will return to Petersburg, VA, for our decadal visit and where we will once more pay homage to Richard ("The Immigrant" or "Old Richard") Yarborough. The folks at Old Blandford are elated that we are returning, and if past occasions are any indication, this will be another stellar event. As soon as venue details are known, they will be published in the Quarterly and posted on our website.

As our President stated above, the Board of Directors signaled full speed ahead on these three thrusts: growing the Association, continuing the family DNA project; and, digitizing our paper genealogical records. We are also working to place markers at the gravesites of Edmund and Sophia Yarbrough in Decatur County, TN. The latter is really an undertaking of Joan Y. Singlaub and Tee Y. Devine, both descendants of Edmund and Sophia, but it really is worthy of support of all of us. There's a notice below where donations may be sent in support of this effort.

As far as records digitization is concerned, the project is in the able hands of Bill Yarbrough/Memphis, and by the next conference we should have made a big step forward in getting our material into a form that will facilitate searching and reviewing. Our DNA project is still in early stages — so far there have been almost seventy tests taken and posted, and several more are underway. Already we have seen several surprises — Old Richard apparently is not the progenitor of the Joshua Yarborough line, and we now have eleven distinct family groups. Two are in England and the remainder are all in the New World. It is readily apparent that a sample from Old Richard's remains is required in order to definitively determine his place in our extended families tree(s). Personally, I'd like to see the priority for this enhanced, but we are limited in the number of things that we can juggle at any one time.

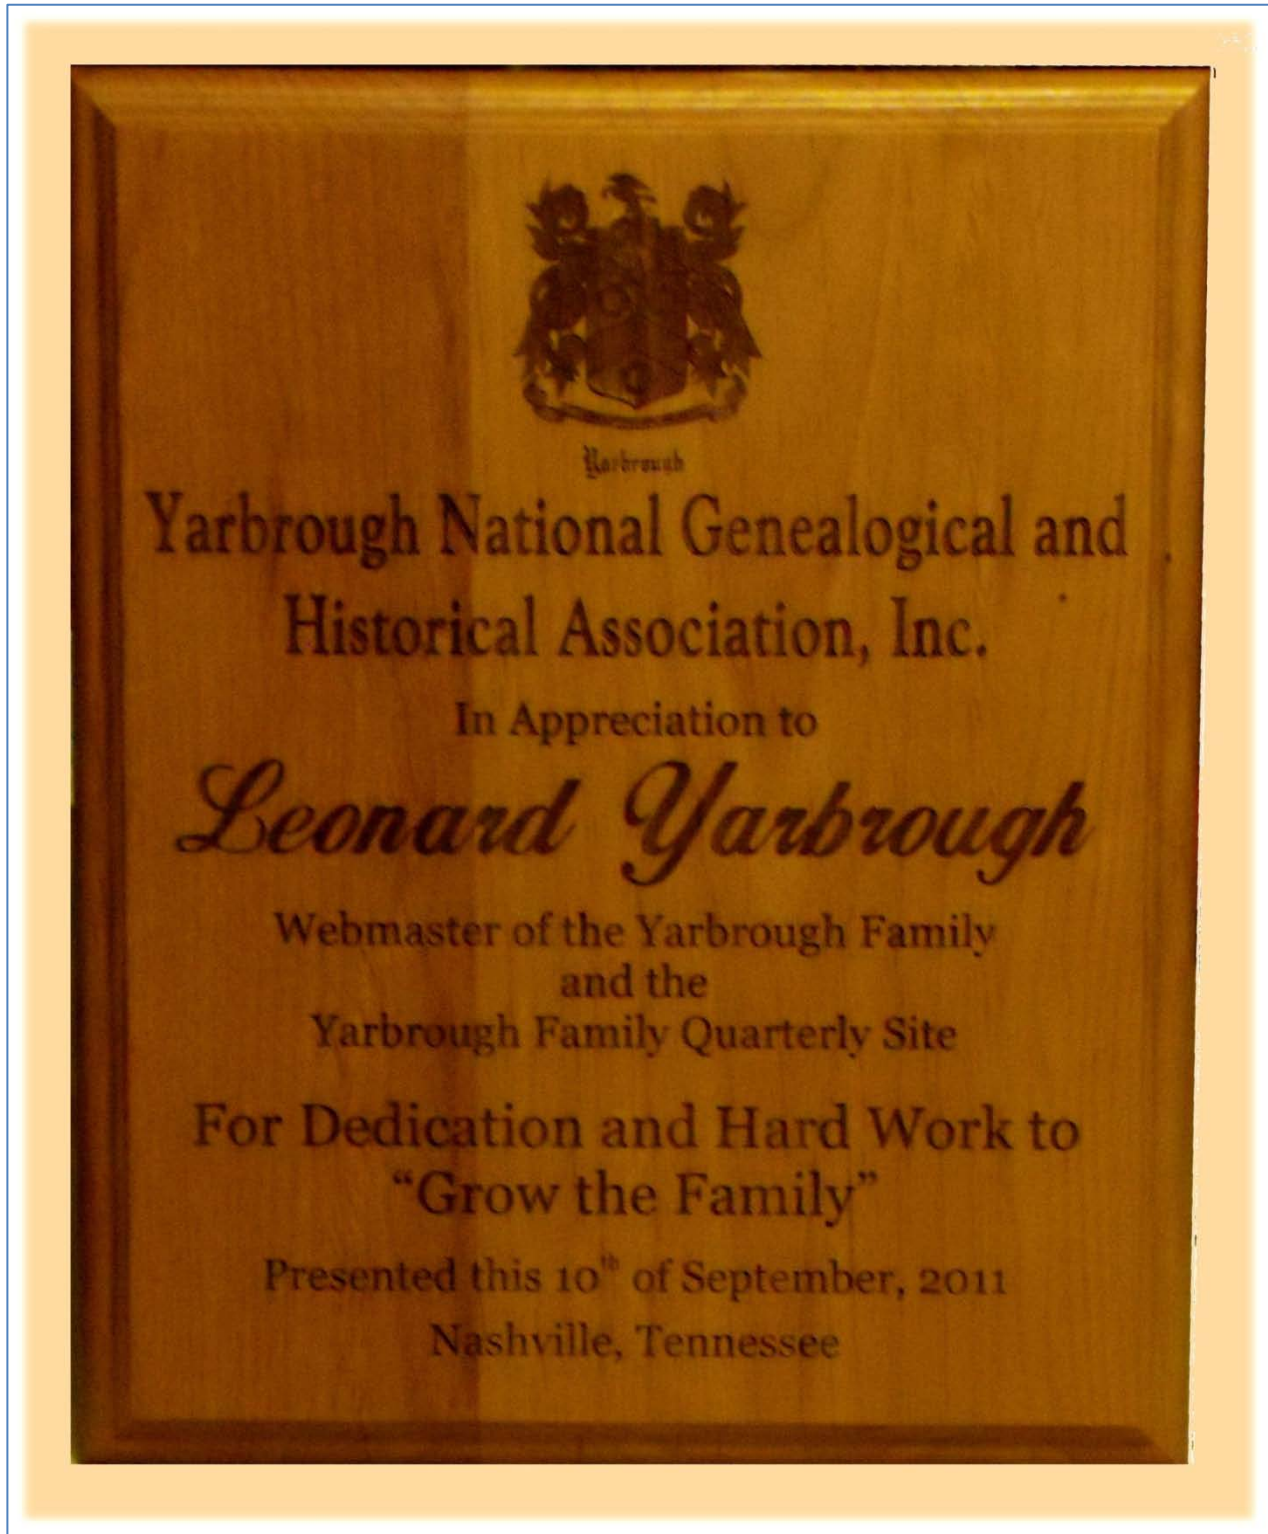

We have a big year ahead of us!

Leonard

Report of the YNGHA Annual Conference Members' Meeting and Banquet³

The annual membership meeting was held September 10, 2011, in the Pinnacle Room high above the Sheraton Hotel in downtown Nashville, TN. President Joan Singlaub introduced Jack Singlaub to give the Pledge of Allegiance and Rusty Moore to give the invocation from Proverbs and Psalms.

Sixty-six members and their guests dined on a colorful salad, and plate dinner of chicken-orzo, broccoli and a delightful strawberry cheesecake. Members had the opportunity to walk around the restaurant's private rotating room and view the skyline.

The President thanked the staff for a wonderful meal and the lovely accommodations. Special thanks went to Jim, Jan, Hal Yarbrough and Barbara Blanton for hosting the Conference in Nashville.

Edmond and Sophia Yarbrough (Jan Yarbrough and his sister Tee Devine) presented a pantomime which enlightened the audience on the trials and hardships encountered when settling land and building their home on Lost Creek in early Decatur County, TN — not to mention the river voyage when the water was high and Sophia could not swim! What a wonderful picture they portrayed for the audience.

Each Yarbrough member introduced themselves, their guests and told what line they were from.

Leonard Yarbrough, Editor of the Quarterly, received a "love roast" and a plaque from the Yarbrough members honoring him for his time as the Yarbrough Family Quarterly Editor and Webmaster. Everyone very much appreciates Leonard's work and outstanding dedication.

All past presidents were honored, along with Arlene Weidinger, and Mary and Phil Yarbrough being founding members.

President Joan Singlaub called the membership meeting to order.

The membership minutes from 2010 had been placed on display in the Research room for all to study, questions and suggestions were sought; none were offered. Motion to approve the minutes as presented was made and seconded, and the minutes were approved unanimously. The President asked that the slate of officers for 2012 be presented: they are President, Joan Singlaub (TN); Vice President, W. A. (Bill) Yarbrough (TN); Secretary, JoAnn Augspurger (IA); Ann Y. Bush, Asst. Secretary (AL); Treasurer, James F. (Jim) Yarbrough (TN). Hearing no nominations from the floor, a motion was made, and seconded to approve the slate of officers as presented. The slate of officers were unanimously approved.

The 2012 Conference will be in Virginia, to pay homage to Richard "the Immigrant" Yarbrough. Watch the Quarterly for the date and details.

President Joan Singlaub asked for any comments from the membership, hearing none she called the meeting to a close, following which group pictures were taken in the hotel lobby.

Respectively submitted,

JoAnn Augspurger,
YNGHA Secretary

Return to Petersburg

Ten years ago, October 21, 2002, the Association met in Petersburg. The occasion was the third meeting honoring the memory of Richard ("Old Richard" or "The Immigrant") Yarborough with a re-enactment of his interment in the Old Blandford Church Cemetery. The ceremony was well attended as he was memorialized once again, with more than 200 people attending the service. History buffs, members of local organizations, visitors, tourists and judging by the name tags, quite a few of the extended Yarborough families, came for the reenactment of his burial 300 years after his death and first interment.

The Brick Church on Well's Hill, now known as Old Blandford Church of Bristol Parish, was erected in 1735. Rich in Colonial, Revolutionary, War of 1812, and Confederate history, the church was abandoned after the building of another Episcopal church in Petersburg, when the Town of Blandford had been absorbed by Petersburg. In 1901 the city delegated to the Ladies Memorial Association of Petersburg the privilege of developing this church into a memorial chapel and a Confederate shrine in memory of the 30,000 heroes buried in its shadow.

The Confederate States honored their soldiers by placing in the church memorial windows, designed and executed by Louis Comfort Tiffany. There are fifteen of these windows, making this shrine one of the art treasures of our country. Other Confederate memorials have been placed from time to time in this historic building. Memorial services were held here for George Washington, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson at their deaths. The cemetery itself covers approximately 189 acres. The oldest grave marker, that of Richard Yarborough, is from 1702.

Richard Yarborough came to the Virginia colony as a young man, prospered, and was a founder of Bristol Parish in 1642. He was the first person to be buried in Blandford Cemetery when he died in 1702. His resting place is on the rise called Wells Hill, before there was a Blandford Church. The church was built 33 years later. Today, his grave site is just to the left of the front door of Blandford Church.

With just a brief introduction, the Rev. D. Donald Dunn III, rector of Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, Petersburg, took the assemblage back to 300 years ago. Then, Dunn said, and "up to the 19th century, the parish church was the center of the community." The church bell would have rung then, first to tell of Yarborough's death, and later to end his funeral service.

Everyone in the community would have known him, Dunn said, but he would not be mentioned by name in the service from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England. Another difference, Dunn said, is that "the vast majority of people in this room wouldn't have owned a Prayer Book - or any book." In order for the congregation to sing the Psalm, the minister sang a line, which the congregation then repeated. That method was used Saturday, even though participants had bulletins with the entire service printed for them to follow.

Times have changed. Old Richard would not recognize the beautiful church where his descendants last met a decade ago, and certainly not Crater Road, nor the American English spoken with a Southern flavor as hundreds waited for the memorial service to begin. He would have known and loved, and been honored once again, by the unchanging worth of Scripture that consigned him to God's mercy and the Psalm time, which Anglicans in 2002 sing to the words "Let saints on earth in concert sing with those whose rest is won."

Next year, the Yarborough National Genealogical & Historical Association will return to Petersburg once again to pay tribute to one of the first members of the extended family to seek his fortunes here in the New World. As details about the 2012 Conference become known, they will be posted on the Yarborough family website (<http://www.yarboroughfamily.org>) and published in the Yarborough Family Quarterly.

Notes for THOMAS YARBROUGH:

[YarboroughMaster.FBK]

Thomas lived in Dist. #8 of Tipton Co.,Tn. in 1850, with real estate valued at $1000 and his first four listed children were born in NC. thus he came after Washington was born in 1837. After Thomas's death, his widow and children went to Woodruff Co., Arkansas.

From the papers of Judge Wm. A. Owen, Tipton County, Tn. "Uncle Peter Wilson Walton was killed by a man named Tom Yarbrough during the war(Civil). It is said that Uncle Wilson denounced Yarbrough for some of his (Yarbrough) conduct--claimed that he had stolen some widow's cow. Dr. Walton saw Yarbrough enter an old church. Yarbrough had his rifle and Dr. Walton said he would not be a coward, that he expected to be shot as he rode by. He was shot, but he managed to stay on his horse until he got home, something like a mile and half away. He lived on 'Randolph Road' just below where uncle Loftin now lives. He died about 24 hours after receiving the fatal wound. One of Dr. Walton's sons, W.H. Walton was in the army at that time, who had a daughter married to a man named Dickey-- When Yarbrough learned that there was a likelihood of Dr. Walton not dying, he proceeded to a thicket where Dr. Walton had 12 or 14 bales of cotton hid and burned them. It was said at the time, the cotton was worth $500 per bale. My grandfather procured a warrant for the arrest of Yarbrough and the sheriff, D. C. Slaughter, with a posse went to Yarbrough's home to arrest him. He was dancing and had a negro playing the violin or fiddle for him. The sheriff informed Yarbrough that he had a warrant and he must submit to arrest. Yarbrough said, "Alright, let me get my hat." He came out of the house with a shotgun in his hand and two pistols and several dollars in gold in a belt around his person. He began to shoot and the posse returned his fire. Yarbrough was killed, but not until after he emptied his shotgun and several shots were fired from his pistol. The only man hit in the posse was a man named Cap Smith, who was first or second cousin of Dr. Walton. Smith afterward was killed by a man named Martin, and Martin was afterwards killed by Carpenter and Carpenter was afterwards killed by some man whose name escapes me, and this man fled, went to Arkansas and was never apprehended."
